ANNEX

In Annex IV to Regulation (EU) 2024/1485, under the heading ‘A. Natural persons’ entries number 1, 2, 3, 12, 13, 36 and 43 are replaced by the following corresponding entries:

	Name	Identifying information	Statement of Reasons	Date of listing
‘1.	Nikolai Pavlovich DUBOVIK (Николай Павлович ДУБОВИК)	Position: Judge of the Supreme Court of the Russian Federation Nationality: Russian Gender: male DOB: 23.4.1956	Nikolai Pavlovich Dubovik is a judge of the Supreme Court of the Russian Federation. In his position, he refused to consider Alexei Navalny’s cassation appeal against the verdict in the “slander of a veteran” trial. As a result, he politically discredited Alexei Navalny before the 2020 constitutional referendum in Russia. Therefore, Nikolai Pavlovich Dubovik is responsible for serious human rights violations in Russia by violating freedom of opinion and expression.	27.5.2024
2.	Eduard Borisovich ERDYNIEV (Эдуард Борисович ЭРДЫНИЕВ)	Position: Judge of the Supreme Court of the Russian Federation Nationality: Russian Gender: male DOB: 16.3.1964	Eduard Borisovich Erdyniev is a judge of the Supreme Court of the Russian Federation. In his position, he refused to consider Alexei Navalny’s cassation appeal against the decision to replace the probation sentence with a fully-fledged sentence. Consequently, Alexei Navalny was pronounced guilty and, years later, was imprisoned in a high-security penal colony in order to prevent him from engaging in political activity. Therefore, Eduard Borisovich Erdyniev is responsible for serious human rights violations in Russia by violating freedom of opinion and expression.	27.5.2024
