COUNCIL DECISION (CFSP) 2025/2469

of 4 December 2025

amending Decision (CFSP) 2020/1999 concerning restrictive measures against serious human rights violations and abuses

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on European Union, and in particular Article 29 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy,

Whereas:

(1) On 7 December 2020, the Council adopted Decision (CFSP) 2020/1999 [1].

(2) On the basis of a review of the Annex to Decision (CFSP) 2020/1999, the measures set out in Articles 2 and 3 of that Decision as regards the natural or legal persons, entities, and bodies listed in that Annex should be extended until 8 December 2026. The entries concerning 27 natural persons and 12 entities included in that Annex should be updated.

(3) Decision (CFSP) 2020/1999 should therefore be amended accordingly,

HAS ADOPTED THIS DECISION:

Article 1

Decision (CFSP) 2020/1999 is amended as follows:

(1) in Article 10(1), the second sentence is deleted.

(2) the Annex is amended in accordance with the Annex to this Decision.

Article 2

This Decision shall enter into force on the day following that of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union.

Done at Brussels, 4 December 2025.

For the Council

The President

T. DANIELSEN

[1] Council Decision (CFSP) 2020/1999 of 7 December 2020 concerning restrictive measures against serious human rights violations and abuses (OJ L 410 I, 7.12.2020, p. 13, ELI: http://data.europa.eu/eli/dec/2020/1999/oj).

ANNEX

The Annex to Decision (CFSP) 2020/1999 is amended as follows:

(1) in section 'A. Natural persons', entries number 5, 6, 7, 8, 20, 22, 23, 26, 34, 35, 43, 44, 58, 60, 84, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 113, 114, 115, 116, 119 and 121 are replaced by the following:

ZHU Hailun	朱海仑 (Chinese spelling)	Position(s): Retired since May 2021 Member of the 13th National People's Congress of the People's Republic of China (in session from 2018 to 2023) representing the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region (XUAR); Member of the National People's Congress Supervisory and Judicial Affairs Committee (since 19 March 2018) DOB: January 1958 POB: Lianshui, Jiangsu (China) Nationality: Chinese Gender: male Associated entities: Central Political and Legal Affairs Commission of the Xinjiang Uygur Autonomous Region (XUAR); 13th People's Congress of the XUAR (a local legislative body)	Former Secretary of the Central Political and Legal Affairs Commission of the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region (XUAR) and former Deputy Secretary of the Party Committee of the XUAR (2016 to 2019). Former Deputy Head of the Standing Committee of the 13th People's Congress of the XUAR, a regional legislative body (2019 to 5 February 2021 but still active until at least March 2021). Member of the 13th National People's Congress of the People's Republic of China (in session from 2018 to 2023) representing the XUAR. Member of the National People's Congress Supervisory and Judicial Affairs Committee since 19 March 2018. As Secretary of the Central Political and Legal Affairs Commission of the XUAR (2016 to 2019), Zhu Hailun was responsible for maintaining internal security and law enforcement in the XUAR. As such, he held a key political position in charge of overseeing and implementing a large-scale surveillance, detention and indoctrination programme targeting Uyghurs and people from other Muslim ethnic minorities. Zhu Hailun has been described as the "architect" of this programme. He is therefore responsible for serious human rights violations in China, in particular large-scale arbitrary detentions inflicted upon Uyghurs and people from other Muslim ethnic minorities. As Deputy Head of the Standing Committee of the 13th People's Congress of the XUAR (2019 to 5 February 2021), Zhu Hailun continued to exercise a decisive influence in the XUAR where the large-scale surveillance, detention and indoctrination programme targeting Uyghurs and people from other Muslim ethnic minorities continues.	22.3.2021

Member of the 20th CPC Central Committee (December 2022 – December 2026). Deputy of the 14th National People's Congress (NPC, February 2023 – February 2027). Former Party Secretary of the Xinjiang Production and Construction Corps (XPCC) and Deputy Secretary of the Party Committee of China's Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region (XUAR) from April 2020 to October 2021, as well as Political commissar of the XPCC from May 2020 to October 2021. Former Secretary of the Central Political and Legal Affairs Commission of the XUAR, from February 2019 to September 2020. Wang Junzheng also held other senior posts in the XPCC. The XPCC is a state-owned economic and paramilitary organisation in the XUAR, which exercises administrative authority and controls economic activities in Xinjiang. As Party Secretary and Political commissar of the XPCC, Wang Junzheng was involved in overseeing all policies implemented by the XPCC. In that position, he was responsible for serious human rights violations in China, in particular large-scale arbitrary detentions and degrading treatment inflicted upon Uyghurs and people from other Muslim ethnic minorities, as well as systematic violations of their freedom of religion or belief, linked, inter alia, to the XPCC's implementation of a large-scale surveillance, detention and indoctrination programme targeting Uyghurs and people from other Muslim ethnic minorities. He was also responsible for the XPCC's systematic use of Uyghurs and people from other Muslim ethnic minorities as a forced workforce, in particular in cotton fields. As Deputy Secretary of the Party Committee of the XUAR, Wang Junzheng was involved in overseeing all the security policies implemented in Xinjiang, including the aforementioned programme targeting Uyghurs and people from other Muslim ethnic minorities. As Secretary of the Central Political and Legal Affairs Commission of the XUAR from February 2019 to September 2020, Wang Junzheng was responsible for maintaining internal security and law enforcement in the XUAR. As such, he held a key political position in charge of overseeing and implementing the aforementioned programme.	22.3.2021

34.	Gordon Koang BIEL a.k.a. Gordon Koang Char BIEL, Koang Biel CHAR, Koang NYALUALGO		Position(s): County commissioner for Koch county POB: South Sudan Nationality: South Sudanese Gender: male	Gordon Koang Biel was the county commissioner for Koch county (Unity State, South Sudan) from February 2021 until November 2024. In this position, he commanded government-aligned militias to carry out attacks in southern Unity State, between February and May 2022. During this period, troops under his command made widespread and systematic use of sexual violence as a war tactic and instrumentalised it as a reward and entitlement for men participating in the conflict. In his capacity as county commissioner, Biel is therefore responsible for serious human rights violations in South Sudan, including systematic and widespread sexual and gender-based violence.	7.3.2023
35.	Toe UI a.k.a. 43.	Sergei Gennadievich PODOPRIGOROV	Сергей Геннадьевич ПОДОПРИГОРОВ (Russian spelling)	Position: Judge of the Moscow City Court DOB: 8.1.1974 POB: Moscow, Russian Federation Nationality: Russian Gender: male Address: 16c2, Shmitovskiy Proyezd, Apartment 52.Moscow, Russia, 123100 (Шмитовский пр-д, 16с2, Москва, Россия, 123100. Квартира 52)	In his position as Judge of the Moscow City Court, Sergei Podoprigorov is involved in the politically motivated court case against Vladimir Kara-Murza. He chaired the collegium of Judges at the Moscow City Court who on 17 April 2023 sentenced opposition activist Kara-Murza to 25 years in high-security prison/labour camp. Kara-Murza is a prominent opposition activist in Russia. Politically motivated court proceedings based on false allegations started against him in 2022 after he accused the Kremlin of committing war crimes in Ukraine and publicly condemned Russian aggression. In April 2023, he was sentenced to 25 years in a high-security prison/labour camp. The court proceedings against him targeted his activism and served as a show trial in Russia to suppress voices critical of the ruling regime in voicing opposition to the war of aggression against Ukraine. The Russian regime is using the judiciary of the country as a widespread tool in numerous serious human rights violations. The justice system is not independent and is used to systematically and severely violate the human rights of individuals opposed to the ruling regime, by violating their freedom of opinion and expression. Kara Murza was released in the 2024 prisoner exchange in Ankara. Previously, Podoprigorov, as a Judge at Moscow's Tverskoi district court, made two rulings in relation to Sergei Magnitsky, who exposed corruption and misconduct by Russian government officials, and was later persecuted and died in Russian prison. Therefore, he is responsible for serious human rights violations in Russia, including violations of freedom of opinion and expression.	5.6.2023

44.	Dmitriy Viktorovich KOMNOV	Дмитрий Викторович КОМНОВ (Russian spelling)	Function: Lieutenant Colonel, former Head of Moscow pre-trial detention centre SIZO-5 “Vodnik” DOB: 17.5.1977 POB: Kashira Region, Moscow, Russian Federation Nationality: Russian Gender: male	Komnov was a senior officer of the Russian penitentiary system. He was Head of Moscow pre-trial detention centre SIZO-5 “Vodnik”, where Vladimir Kara-Murza was held. Kara-Murza is a prominent opposition activist in Russia. Politically motivated court proceedings based on false allegations started against him in 2022 after he accused the Kremlin of committing war crimes in Ukraine and publicly condemned Russian aggression. In April 2023, he was sentenced to 25 years in a high-security prison/labour camp. The court proceedings against him targeted his activism and served as a show trial in Russia to suppress voices critical of the ruling regime in voicing opposition to the war of aggression against Ukraine. The Russian regime is using the judiciary of the country as a widespread tool in numerous serious human rights violations. The justice system is not independent and is used to systematically and severely violate the human rights of individuals opposed to the ruling regime, by violating their freedom of opinion and expression. The health condition of Kara-Murza has considerably deteriorated since his detention began in April 2022. Komnov is responsible for the degrading treatment of Kara-Murza as he was sent to a punishment cell in spite of a severe nerve disorder caused by two earlier poisonings. The ill treatment of Kara-Murza in the pre-trial detention centre managed by Komnov confirms the pattern of established practice of inhumane treatment of detained opponents of the regime. He was the warden of “Butyrka” pre-trial detention centre at a time when unbearable conditions led to the death of anti-corruption activist Sergei Magnitsky. Kara Murza was released in the 2024 prisoner exchange in Ankara. Therefore, Komnov is responsible for serious human rights violations in Russia, including degrading treatment and violations of freedom of opinion and expression.	5.6.2023

In this capacity, he has effectively used the legal system to implement gender-based repression against women by excluding female judges from the Afghan court system and systematically restricting women’s access to justice, thereby violating the principle of equal treatment between men and women. On 8 July 2025, the ICC issued an arrest warrant for Haqqani due to his alleged responsibility for the crime against humanity of persecution on gender and political grounds. Beyond his role as acting Taliban Chief Justice, Abdul Hakim Haqqani functions as an ideological leader within the Taliban. Through his personal access to Taliban leader Haibatullah Akhundzada, he has exercised political influence in order to shape the Taliban’s ideology with regard to gender repression, in particular by issuing guidance for the systematic exclusion of women and girls from public life in Afghanistan. In his capacity as acting Taliban Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Afghanistan, he is therefore responsible for serious human rights violations in Afghanistan, in particular the violation of women’s right to access to justice and the right to equal treatment between men and women.	20.7.2023

He commands forces in the South Sudan state of Western Equatoria that committed widespread attacks against the civilian population. His forces systematically employed sexual and gender-based violence as a means to terrorise the population. In his capacity as Major General, he is therefore responsible for serious human rights violations in South Sudan, including sexual and gender-based violence. As of 2025, he is still militarily active and continues to be involved in acts of violence against civilians.	20.7.2023
84.	Kirill Sergeevich NIKIFOROV	Кирилл Сергеевич НИКИФОРОВ (Russian spelling)	Position(s): Judge of the Vladimir Regional Court DOB: 14.3.1992 Nationality: Russian Gender: male	Kirill Sergeevich Nikiforov is a judge of the Vladimir Regional Court. In his former capacity as a Kovrov City Court judge, he rejected the lawsuit of opposition leader Alexei Navalny against IK-6 to appeal against his transfer to a punishment cell for 12 days. While serving time in IK-6, officials regularly placed Alexei Navalny in a punishment cell for alleged minor infractions. Consequently, he spent months in isolation leading to a significant deterioration of his health. Therefore, in his former position as a judge of Kovrov City Court he is responsible for serious human rights violations in Russia, including arbitrary detentions as well as torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, as well as the violation of freedom of opinion and expression, which is of serious concern as regards the objectives of the common foreign and security policy set out in Article 21 TEU.	22.3.2024

106.	Neria BEN PAZI a.k.a. Naria BEN FAZ		DOB: 28.11.1993 Nationality: Israeli Gender: male ID number: 311509004	In recent years, Neria Ben Pazi has established several of the most violent outposts in the West Bank. He is one of the main perpetrators of the forced displacement of the Bedouin community of Wadi Seeq near Ramallah in October 2023. Since 2021, Neria Ben Pazi has been accused of repeatedly attacking Palestinians in Wadi Seeq and in Deir Jarir and his actions have been likened to torture. On 12 October 2023, he participated in a violent attack in Wadi Seeq, where Palestinians were severely beaten, handcuffed and photographed in their underwear. Settlers urinated on them and extinguished cigarettes on them. He is therefore responsible for serious human rights violations or abuses against Palestinians, including torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, which is also of serious concern with regard to the objectives of the common foreign and security policy as set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union.	19.4.2024

107.	Yinon LEVI a.k.a. Yinon LEVY		DOB: 12.12.1992 Nationality: Israeli Gender: male ID number: 203807276	Yinon Levi has taken part in multiple violent acts against neighbouring villages from his residence in the Meitarim farm illegal outpost. This notably includes storming and damaging houses of Palestinian families, including in the presence of women and children, as well as having dogs set on Palestinian shepherds to physically attack them while letting his herd graze on their privately owned lands. Levi was involved in the violent attack by settlers on 28 July 2025 in the West Bank village of Umm Al-Khair, in which Levi shot and killed human rights defender Awdah Hathaleen. He is therefore responsible for serious and widespread human rights violations or abuses targeted at the Palestinians' right to physical and mental integrity, right to property and right to private and family life, which are also of serious concern as regards the objectives of the common foreign and security policy set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union.	19.4.2024

The Hilltop Youth establishes unauthorised outposts on hilltops in the West Bank and engages in settler violence through so-called "price tag attacks". The settler violence, including physical and psychosocial harassment, beatings, murder and demolition of property, against Palestinians is of a systematic nature. Meir Ettinger encourages and incites attacks and participates in intimidation to force Palestinians off their lands. He has contributed to the establishment of illegal settlements and outposts on Palestinian lands across the West Bank, employing and condoning tactics of intimidation, harassment and violence. He was involved in a deadly arson attack in 2015, already being considered part of the Hilltop Youth, on a Palestinian West Bank home that killed two parents and their 18-month-old boy. Therefore, Meir Ettinger is responsible for serious human rights violations or abuses, including torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, as well as violations or abuses of the right to property and the right to private and family life of Palestinians in the West Bank and for supporting and encouraging such acts. Those abuses and violations are also of serious concern with regard to the objectives of the common foreign and security policy as set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union.	19.4.2024

109.	Elisha YERED	אלישע ירד (Hebrew spelling)	Position(s): member of the Hilltop Youth DOB: 2001 Nationality: Israeli Gender: male Associated entity: Hilltop Youth	Elisha Yered is an Israeli settler activist in the West Bank and known as being affiliated with the Hilltop Youth, a radical youth group that engages in violent acts against Palestinians and their villages in the West Bank. The Hilltop Youth engages in settler violence through so-called "price tag attacks". This settler violence, including physical and psychosocial harassment, beatings, murder and demolition of property, against Palestinians is of a systematic nature. Elisha Yered encourages such acts and participates in them. He regularly incites violence against Palestinians in the West Bank including by distributing messages such as to "wipe out" a Palestinian village. In April 2024, Elisha Yered coordinated and incited settler attacks that left four Palestinians dead, scores wounded, dozens of homes and more than 100 cars torched across 11 villages, and thousands of animals slaughtered. He sent WhatsApp messages calling for "collective punishment against the murderous Arab population." The rampage was one of the most intense and systematic settler attacks in decades. He personally harassed a Palestinian family, using intimidating and threatening language to impede their freedom of movement on their own land and is involved in the destruction of property of Palestinians in the West Bank. Elisha Yered was part of a group of armed settlers that on 4 August 2023 advanced from the direction of the illegal outpost of Oz Zion to the Palestinian village of Burqa near Ramallah. The settlers fired bullets at the Palestinians, which led to the death of the 19-year old Palestinian Qusai Jammal Mi'tan and wounded several other Palestinians. Therefore, Elisha Yered is responsible for serious human rights violations or abuses, including torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, as well as violations or abuses of the right to property and the right to private and family life of Palestinians in the West Bank and for supporting and encouraging such acts, and is responsible for the advocacy of national, racial or religious hatred which constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence. Those violations or abuses are also of serious concern with regard to the objectives of the common foreign and security policy as set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union.	19.4.2024

Moshe Sharvit is engaged in settler violence and threats towards Palestinian residents in shepherding communities close to his hilltop outpost in the West Bank. His harassment against those communities has escalated since October 2023. Moshe Sharvit has frequently harassed Palestinians verbally and physically, demanding that they leave their homes and properties. In October 2023, that behaviour resulted in Palestinian civilians fleeing their village of Ein Shibli. He used threatening language against Palestinian men, women and children and physically attacked an elderly person. His actions include hurling stones at Palestinians and their livestock, intentionally driving into herds and cultivated fields, deploying dogs to attack Palestinians and their livestock, and physically abusing animals by using clubs and whips. On 6 March 2025, a Jerusalem court barred Sharvit from approaching a Palestinian family's compound near his outpost, following repeated assaults and harassment. Therefore, Moshe Sharvit is responsible for serious and systematic human rights abuses, including abuse of the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental integrity. Those abuses are also of serious concern as regards the objectives of the common foreign and security policy as set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union.	15.7.2024

111.	Zvi BAR YOSEF a.k.a. Zvi BAR-YOSEF		DOB: 20.9.1992 Nationality: Israeli Gender: male ID number: 204377998 Associated entities: Zvi's Farm	Zvi Bar Yosef established the unauthorised outpost known as "Zvi's Farm" in the West Bank, east of the Halamish settlement. The outpost has taken over some 2 500 dunams / 620 acres that were cultivated by the villages of Jibya, Kaubar (Kobar) and Umm Safa. In 2019, 2021 and 2023, Zvi Bar Yosef repeatedly attacked and committed acts of violence against Palestinians from those villages, causing severe injuries to some of them. Bar Yosef still lives in Zvi's Farm. His history of violence has turned the surrounding area into a no-go zone, Palestinians can no longer access their own fields. Therefore, Zvi Bar Yosef is responsible for serious and systematic human rights abuses, including abuses of the right to physical and mental integrity, the right to property and the right to private and family life. Those abuses are also of serious concern as regards the objectives of the common foreign and security policy as set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union.	15.7.2024

113.	Baruch MARZEL		Position(s): Member of Otzma Yehudit DOB: 23.4.1959 POB: Boston, USA Nationality: American, Israeli Gender: male Address: Tel. Rumeida settlement, Hebron, Occupied Palestinian Territories	Baruch Marzel is the founder of the far-right political party "Otzma Yehudit", currently led by Itamar Ben Gvir. The party represents one of Israel's most extremist ideologies and is part of the Kahanist movement. In the 1990s, he was the leader of the Kahane party until it was banned by the Israeli authorities in 1994. In 2019, Baruch Marzel was banned by the Israeli Supreme Court from standing in parliamentary elections because the court found that he had made numerous racist remarks. Baruch Marzel calls for the creation of a Greater Israel where Palestinians would have no place. He openly calls for an ethnic cleansing of the Palestinians and denies the Palestinians' right to their own land. Since the Gaza conflict began, he has repeatedly called for humanitarian aid to Gaza to be blocked and for the entire population of Gaza to be forcibly transferred. Therefore, Baruch Marzel is responsible for serious human rights abuses, in particular systematic advocacy of national, racial or religious hatred, which constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence. Those abuses are also of serious concern as regards the objectives of the common foreign and security policy as set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union.	15.7.2024

Ben-Zion "Bentzi" Gopstein promotes a vision that denies all Palestinians their rights and calls for an end to the Palestinian presence in Israel and in the Palestinian Territories. Ben-Zion "Bentzi" Gopstein was banned by Israel's Supreme Court from running in the 2019 Knesset elections because he "systematically incites racism against the Arab public". In 2025, he was convicted of incitement to terror, after he railed against Arab Israelis, stating "The enemies within us are a cancer, and if we don't get rid of this cancer, we won't be able to continue existing here as Jews". Since 2023, Gopstein has been advising far-right National Security Minister Itamar Ben-Gvir and senior police officials on security matters. Following a terror attack in East Jerusalem, he proposed that the minister take brutal measures including targeted assassinations, house demolitions, the blockade of entire neighbourhoods, and legislation to deport the families of attackers. Therefore, Ben-Zion "Bentzi" Gopstein is responsible for systematic and serious human rights abuses consisting of advocacy of national, racial or religious hatred, which constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence. Those abuses are also of serious concern as regards the objectives of the common foreign and security policy as set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union.	15.7.2024

29.	Moshe's Farm (a.k.a. Tirza Valley Farm Outpost)	החווה של משה (Hebrew spelling)	Address: West Bank, Occupied Palestinian Territories Date of registration: 2021 Associated individuals: Moshe Sharvit	Moshe's Farm, also known as Tirza Valley Farm, is owned by Israeli settler Moshe Sharvit, and was founded by him in 2020. Moshe Sharvit is engaged in settler violence and threats towards Palestinian residents in shepherding communities close to his hilltop outpost in the West Bank. Moshe's Farm is an illegal outpost located approximately 1,5 kilometers southeast of the Hamra settlement, in the West Bank. Moshe's Farm has expanded since its founding, and currently includes several residential buildings, a guest lodge for travellers and an events complex. The guest lodge can accommodate up to 100 people, and all buildings were set up without permits and are thus illegal. Since the establishment of Moshe's Farm, it has been a hub of violence and harassment against Palestinian shepherding communities and been the base from which Moshe Sharvit and other farm residents perpetrate violence and harassment against Palestinians. On 6 March 2025, a Jerusalem court barred Sharvit from approaching a Palestinian family's compound near his West Bank outpost, following repeated assaults and harassment. Therefore, Moshe's Farm is an entity associated with Moshe Sharvit, listed for serious and systematic human rights abuses, including abuse of the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental integrity. Those abuses are also of serious concern as regards the objectives of the common foreign and security policy as set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union.	15.7.2024

31.	Tzav 9 (a.k.a. Tsav 9; Order 9)		Website: https://www.tzav9.co.il/faq	Tzav 9 is an Israeli group of violent activists co-founded in January 2024 by Reut Ben Haim and Aviad Shlomo Sarid. Reut Ben Haim and Yossef (Sefi) Ben Haim currently head the group. According to its website, Tzav 9's two main missions are to block supply trucks delivering humanitarian aid, including food, water and fuel, to Gaza and to tarnish the legitimacy of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East in Israel. Since January 2024, Tzav 9 has regularly blocked humanitarian aid trucks. On 18 January 2024, the group carried out the first blockages of aid deliveries at Kerem Shalom. On 13 May 2024 at Tarqumiyah checkpoint, Tzav 9 participated in a violent protest against a truck driver. On 16 May 2024 in the West Bank, Tzav 9 was involved in an attack against a food truck. Other incidents took place, inter alia, in the areas of Kerem Shalom and Nitzana. Tzav 9 activists intercepted aid trucks on 22, 27 and 31 May, 13, 17 and 19 July and 4 and 6 August 2025, at Allenby crossing, at Ashdod port and on the way thereto, notably in Arad and Dimona. The actions carried out include violent protests, attacks against food trucks and the destruction of food. Those actions contributed further to the already dire situation of the civilian population in Gaza. Therefore, Tzav 9 is responsible for serious human rights abuses, including abuse of the right of everyone to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of physical and mental integrity. Those abuses are also of serious concern as regards the objectives of the common foreign and security policy as set out in Article 21 of the Treaty on European Union.	15.7.2024
