ANNEX 3-A

INTRODUCTORY NOTES TO PRODUCT-SPECIFIC RULES

Note 1

General principles

1. This Annex sets out the general rules for the applicable requirements of Annex 3-B provided for in point (c) of Article 3.2(1) and point (c) of Article 3.2(2).

2. For the purposes of this Annex and Annex 3-B, the requirements for a product to be originating in accordance with point (c) of Article 3.2(1) and point (c) of Article 3.2(2) are a change in tariff classification, a production process, a maximum value of non-originating materials or any other requirement specified in this Annex and Annex 3-B.

3. References to weight in a product-specific rule of origin means the net weight, which is the weight of a material or a product not including the weight of packaging.

4. This Annex and Annex 3-B are based on the Harmonized System, as amended on 1 January 2017.

Note 2

Structure of Annex 3-B

1. Notes on sections, chapters, headings or subheadings shall be read in conjunction with the product-specific rules of origin for the relevant section, chapter, heading or subheading.

2. Each product-specific rule of origin set out in Column 2 of Annex 3-B applies to the corresponding product identified in Column 1 of Annex 3-B.

3. If a product is subject to alternative product-specific rules of origin, the product shall be considered originating if it satisfies one of the alternatives set out for that product. If a product is subject to a product-specific rule of origin that includes multiple requirements, the product shall be considered originating only if it satisfies all of the requirements.

4. For the purposes of this Annex and Annex 3-B, the following definitions apply:

   (a) 'Chapter' means the first two digits in the tariff classification number under the Harmonized System;

   (b) 'heading' means the first four digits in the tariff classification number under the Harmonized System;

   (c) 'Section' means a section of the Harmonized System; and

   (d) 'subheading' means the first six digits in the tariff classification number under the Harmonized System.

5. For the purposes of product-specific rules of origin, the following abbreviations apply ([1]):

   (a) 'CC' means manufacture from non-originating materials of any chapter, except that of the product, or a change to the chapter, heading or subheading from any other chapter, meaning that all non-originating materials used in the manufacture of the product must undergo a change in tariff classification at the 2-digit level, namely a change in chapter of the Harmonized System;

([1]) For greater certainty, if a requirement of a change in tariff classification provides as an exception for a change from certain chapters, headings or subheadings, none of the non-originating materials of those chapters, headings or subheadings may be used, individually or jointly.

(b) 'CTH' means manufacture from non-originating materials of any heading, except that of the product, or a change to the chapter, heading or subheading from any other heading, meaning that all non-originating materials used in the manufacture of the product must undergo a change in tariff classification at the 4-digit level, namely a change in heading of the Harmonized System; and

(c) 'CTSH' means manufacture from non-originating materials of any subheading, except that of the product, or a change to the chapter, heading or subheading from any other subheading, meaning that all non-originating materials used in the manufacture of the product must undergo a change in tariff classification at the 6-digit level, namely a change in subheading of the Harmonized System.

Note 3

Application of Annex 3-B

1. Point (c) of Article 3.2(1) and point (c) of Article 3.2(2), concerning products having acquired originating status which are used in the manufacture of other products, apply irrespective of whether or not this status has been acquired inside the same place of manufacture in a Party where those products are used.

2. If a product-specific rule of origin provides that a specified non-originating material cannot be used or that the value or weight of a specified non-originating material cannot exceed a specific threshold, those requirements do not apply to non-originating materials classified elsewhere in the HS.

3. If a product-specific rule of origin provides that a product is to be produced from a particular material, this does not prevent the use of other materials which cannot satisfy that requirement because of their inherent nature.

Note 4

Calculation of a maximum value of non-originating materials

1. For the purposes of product-specific rules of origin, the following definitions apply:

(a) 'customs value' means the value as determined in accordance with the Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of GATT 1994;

(b) 'EXW' means:

(i) the ex-works price of the product paid or payable to the manufacturer in whose undertaking the last working or processing is carried out, if the price includes the value of all the materials used and all other costs incurred in the manufacture of a product minus any internal taxes which are, or may be, repaid when the product obtained is exported; or

(ii) if there is no price paid or payable, or if the actual price paid does not reflect all costs related to the manufacture of the product which are actually incurred in the manufacture of a product, the value of all the materials used and all other costs incurred in the manufacture of the product in the exporting Party which:

(A) include selling, general and administrative expenses, as well as profit, that can be reasonably allocated to the product; and

(B) exclude the costs of freight, insurance, all other costs incurred in transporting the product and any internal taxes of the exporting Party which are, or may be, repaid when the product obtained is exported;

(c) 'MaxNOM' means the maximum value of non-originating materials expressed as a percentage; and

(d) 'VNM' means the value of non-originating materials used in the manufacture of the product, which is the customs value at the time of importation including freight, insurance if appropriate, packing and all the other costs incurred in transporting the materials to the importation port in the Party where the producer of the product is located.

If it is not known and cannot be ascertained, the first ascertainable price paid for the non-originating materials in either Party is used, which may exclude all costs incurred in transporting the non-originating materials within a Party, such as freight, insurance and packing costs as well as any other known and ascertainable cost incurred there.

2. For the calculation of MaxNOM, the following formula applies:

$$\text{MaxNOM}(\%) = \frac{\text{VNM}}{\text{EXW}} \times 100$$

Note 5

Definitions of terms used in Section XI of Annex 3-B

1. 'Natural fibres' means fibres other than artificial or synthetic fibres. Their use is restricted to the stages before spinning takes place, including waste, and, unless otherwise specified, includes fibres which have been carded, combed or otherwise processed, but not spun; 'natural fibres' includes horsehair of heading 05.11, silk of headings 50.02 and 50.03, wool-fibres and fine or coarse animal hair of headings 51.01 to 51.05, cotton fibres of headings 52.01 to 52.03, and other vegetable fibres of headings 53.01 to 53.05.

2. 'Textile pulp', 'chemical materials' and 'paper-making materials' mean materials not classified in Chapters 50 to 63 which can be used to manufacture artificial, synthetic or paper fibres or yarns.

3. 'Man-made staple fibres' means synthetic or artificial filament tow, staple fibres or waste of headings 55.01 to 55.07.

4. 'Printing' means a technique by which an objectively assessed function, such as colour, design or technical performance, is applied to a textile substrate with a permanent character, using screen, roller, digital or transfer techniques.

5. 'Printing (as standalone operation)' means a technique by which an objectively assessed function, such as colour, design or technical performance, is applied to a textile substrate with a permanent character, using screen, roller, digital or transfer techniques combined with at least 2 (two) preparatory or finishing operations such as scouring, bleaching, mercerising, heat setting, raising, calendering, shrink resistance processing, permanent finishing, decatising, impregnating, mending and burling, provided that the value of all the materials used does not exceed 50 % (fifty per cent) of the ex-works price of the product.

Note 6

Tolerances applicable to products containing two or more basic textile materials

1. For the purposes of this Note, basic textile materials are the following:

— silk;

— wool;

— coarse animal hair;

— fine animal hair;

— horsehair;

— cotton;

— paper-making materials and paper;

— flax;

— true hemp;

— jute and other textile bast fibres;

— sisal and other textile fibres of the genus Agave;

— coconut, abaca, ramie and other vegetable textile fibres;

— synthetic man-made filaments;

— artificial man-made filaments;

— current-conducting filaments;

— synthetic man-made staple fibres of polypropylene;

— synthetic man-made staple fibres of polyester;

— synthetic man-made staple fibres of polyamide;

— synthetic man-made staple fibres of polyacrylonitrile;

— synthetic man-made staple fibres of polyimide;

— synthetic man-made staple fibres of polytetrafluoroethylene;

— synthetic man-made staple fibres of poly(phenylene sulphide);

— synthetic man-made staple fibres of poly(vinyl chloride);

— other synthetic man-made staple fibres;

— artificial man-made staple fibres of viscose;

— other artificial man-made staple fibres;

— yarn made of polyurethane segmented with flexible segments of polyether, whether or not gimped;

— yarn made of polyurethane segmented with flexible segments of polyester, whether or not gimped;

— products of heading 56.05 (metallised yarn) incorporating strip consisting of a core of aluminium foil or of a core of plastic film whether or not coated with aluminium powder, of a width not exceeding 5 (five) mm, sandwiched by means of a transparent or coloured adhesive between 2 (two) layers of plastic film; and — other products of heading 56.05.

Example:

A yarn, of heading 52.05, made from cotton fibres of heading 52.03 and synthetic staple fibres of heading 55.06, is a mixed yarn. Therefore, non-originating synthetic staple fibres which do not satisfy the requirements set out in Annex 3-B may be used, provided that their total weight does not exceed 10 % (ten per cent) of the weight of the yarn.

Example:

A woollen fabric, of heading 51.12, made from woollen yarn of heading 51.07 and synthetic yarn of staple fibres of heading 55.09, is a mixed fabric. Therefore, synthetic yarn which does not satisfy the requirements set out in Annex 3-B, or woollen yarn which does not satisfy the requirements set out in Annex 3-B, or a combination of the two, may be used, provided that their total weight does not exceed 10 % (ten per cent) of the weight of all the basic textile materials.

Example:

Tufted textile fabric, of heading 58.02, made from cotton yarn of heading 52.05 and cotton fabric of heading 52.10, is only a mixed product if the cotton fabric is itself a mixed fabric made from yarns classified in two separate headings, or if the cotton yarns used are themselves mixtures.

If the tufted textile fabric concerned had been made from cotton yarn of heading 52.05 and synthetic fabric of heading 54.07, then, obviously, the yarns used are two separate basic textile materials and the tufted textile fabric is, accordingly, a mixed product.

2. Where reference to this Note is made in Annex 3-B, the requirements set out in Column 2 thereof shall not apply to any non-originating basic textile materials, excluding elastomeric yarns, which are used in the manufacture of the product of Chapters 50 to 63, provided that:

(a) the product contains 2 (two) or more basic textile materials; and

(b) the weight of the non-originating basic textile materials, taken together, does not exceed 10 % (ten per cent) of the total weight of all the basic textile materials used.

3. Notwithstanding Note 6.2, for products of Chapters 50 to 63 incorporating 'yarn made of polyurethane segmented with flexible segments of polyether, whether or not gimped', the tolerance is 20 % (twenty per cent) in respect of the weight of this non-originating yarn as a percentage of the weight of all the basic textile materials used.

4. Notwithstanding Note 6.2, for products of Chapters 50 to 63 incorporating 'strip consisting of a core of aluminium foil or of a core of plastic film whether or not coated with aluminium powder, of a width not exceeding 5 (five) mm, sandwiched by means of a transparent or coloured adhesive between two layers of plastic film', the tolerance is 30 % (thirty per cent) in respect of the weight of this non-originating strip as a percentage of the weight of all the basic textile materials used.

Note 7

Other tolerances applicable to certain textile products

1. Where reference to this Note is made in Annex 3-B, non-originating textile materials, with the exception of linings and interlinings, elastomeric yarns and sewing threads, which do not satisfy the requirements set out in the list in Column 2 for the made-up textile product, may be used, provided that they are classified in a heading other than that of the product and that their value does not exceed 8 % (eight per cent) of the ex-works price of the product.

2. Non-originating materials which are not classified within Chapters 50 to 63 may be used without restriction in the manufacture of textile products classified in Chapters 50 to 63, whether or not they contain textiles.

Example

If a requirement set out in Annex 3-B provides that yarn must be used for a particular textile item (such as trousers), this does not prevent the use of non-originating metal items, such as buttons, because metal items are not classified within Chapters 50 to 63. For the same reason, it does not prevent the use of slide fasteners, even though slide fasteners normally contain textiles.

3. If a requirement set out in Annex 3-B that consists of a maximum value of non-originating materials applies, the value of non-originating materials which are not classified within Chapters 50 to 63 shall be taken into account when calculating the value of the incorporated non-originating materials.

Note 8

Definitions of processes referred to in Sections VI to VII in Annex 3-B

For the purposes of product-specific rules of origin, the following definitions apply:

(a) 'biotechnological processing' means:

(i) biological or biotechnological culturing (including cell culture), hybridisation or genetic modification of:

(1) micro-organisms such as bacteria and viruses, including phages; or

(2) human, animal or plant cells; and

(ii) production, isolation or purification of cellular or intercellular structures, such as isolated genes, gene fragments and plasmids, or fermentation;

(b) 'change in particle size' means the deliberate and controlled modification of the particle size of a product, other than by merely crushing or pressing, resulting in a product with a defined particle size, defined particle size distribution or defined surface area, which is relevant for the purposes of the resulting product and with physical or chemical characteristics different from those of the input materials;

(c) 'chemical reaction' means a process, including a biochemical processing, which results in a molecule with a new structure by breaking intramolecular bonds and by forming new intramolecular bonds, or by altering the spatial arrangement of atoms in a molecule, with the exception of the following, which are not considered to be chemical reactions for the purposes of this definition:

(i) dissolving in water or other solvents;

(ii) the elimination of solvents including solvent water; or

(iii) the addition or elimination of water of crystallisation;

(d) 'isomer separation' means the isolation or separation of isomers from a mixture of isomers;

(e) 'mixing and blending' means the deliberate and proportionally controlled mixing or blending (including dispersing) of materials, other than the addition of diluents, only to conform to predetermined specifications which results in the production of a product having physical or chemical characteristics which are relevant for the purposes or uses of the product and are different from the input materials;

(f) 'production of standard materials' (including standard solutions) means a production of a preparation suitable for analytical, calibrating or referencing uses with precise degrees of purity or proportions certified by the manufacturer;

(g) 'purification' means a process which results in:

(i) the purification of a good resulting in the elimination of at least 80 % (eighty per cent) of the content of existing impurities; or

(ii) the reduction or elimination of impurities resulting in a good suitable for one or more of the following applications:

(1) pharmaceutical, medical, cosmetic, veterinary or food grade substances;

(2) chemical products and reagents for analytical, diagnostic or laboratory uses;

(3) elements and components for use in micro-electronics;

(4) specialised optical uses;

(5) biotechnical use, such as in cell culturing, in genetic technology, or as a catalyst);

(6) carriers used in a separation process; or

(7) nuclear grade uses.

Note 9

Agricultural products

Agricultural products falling within Chapters 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12 and heading 24.01 which are grown or harvested in the territory of a Party shall be treated as originating in the territory of that Party, even if grown from seeds, bulbs, rootstock, cuttings, slips, grafts, shoots, buds or other live parts of plants imported from a third country.

2. The provisions of this Annex apply to any administrative authority of either Party which is competent for the application of this Annex. That assistance shall neither prejudice a Party's laws and regulations governing mutual assistance in criminal matters nor cover information obtained under powers exercised on request of a judicial authority, except where communication of such information is authorised by that authority.

3. Assistance to recover duties, taxes or fines is not covered by this Annex.

ARTICLE 3

Assistance on request

1. On request of the applicant authority, the requested authority shall provide it with all relevant information which may enable it to ensure that customs legislation is correctly applied, including information related to activities noted or planned which are or could be operations in breach of customs legislation.

2. On request of the applicant authority, the requested authority shall inform it whether:

2. The information referred to in paragraph 1 shall focus in particular on:

1. Requests for assistance under this Annex shall be made in writing, either in print or in electronic format. They shall be accompanied by the documents necessary to enable compliance with the request. 4. If a request does not meet the formal requirements set out in paragraphs 1 to 3, the requested authority may require the correction or completion of the request. In the meantime, precautionary measures may be taken.

ARTICLE 6

Execution of requests

1. In order to comply with a request for assistance, the requested authority shall proceed, within the limits of its competence and available resources, and as though it were acting on its own account or on request of another authority of that same Party, by supplying information already in its possession, by carrying out appropriate enquiries or by arranging for such enquiries to be carried out. This provision shall also apply to any other authority to which the request has been addressed by the requested authority if the latter cannot act on its own.

2. Requests for assistance shall be executed in accordance with the laws and regulations of the requested Party.

ARTICLE 7

Form in which information is to be communicated

1. The requested authority shall communicate results of enquiries to the applicant authority in writing together with relevant documents, certified copies or other items. This information may be provided in electronic format.

ARTICLE 8

Presence of officials of a Party in the territory of another

1. Duly authorised officials of a Party may, with the agreement of the other Party and subject to the conditions specified by the latter, be present:

(a) in the offices of the requested authority or any other concerned authority referred to in Article 6(1) to obtain information that the applicant authority needs for the purposes of this Annex relating to activities that are or could be operations in breach of customs legislation; and

ARTICLE 11

Exceptions to the obligation to provide assistance

1. Assistance may be refused or may be subject to the fulfilment of certain conditions or requirements in cases where a Party considers that assistance under this Annex would:

(a) be likely to prejudice the sovereignty of a Signatory MERCOSUR State or of a Member State of the European Union which has been requested to provide assistance under this Annex;

(b) be likely to prejudice public policy, security or other essential interests, in particular in the cases referred to in Article 12(5); or

(c) violate an industrial, commercial or professional secret.

2. The requested authority may postpone assistance on the grounds that such assistance will interfere with ongoing investigations, prosecutions or proceedings. In such a case, the requested authority shall consult with the applicant authority to determine if assistance can be given subject to such terms or conditions as the requested authority may require.

3. If the applicant authority seeks assistance which it would itself be unable to provide if so requested, it shall draw attention to that fact in its request. It shall then be for the requested authority to decide how to respond to such a request.

4. In the cases referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2, the requested authority shall communicate its decision and the reasons therefor to the applicant authority without delay.

ARTICLE 12

Information exchange and confidentiality

1. The information received under this Annex shall be used solely for the purposes established herein.

2. The use of information received under this Annex in judicial or administrative proceedings instituted in respect of operations in breach of customs legislation shall be considered to fall within the purposes of this Annex. Therefore, each Party may, in their records of evidence, reports and testimonies and in proceedings and charges brought before judicial or administrative authorities, use as evidence information obtained and documents consulted in accordance with this Annex. The requested authority may subject the supply of information or the granting of access to documents to the condition that it is notified of such use.

3. If one of the Parties wishes to use such information for purposes other than those referred to in this Annex, it shall obtain the prior written consent of the authority which provided the information. Such use shall then be subject to any restrictions laid down by that authority.

4. Any information communicated in whatsoever form pursuant to this Annex shall be of a confidential or restricted nature, in accordance with each Party's laws and regulations. That information shall be covered by the obligation of professional secrecy and shall enjoy the protection granted to similar information under the relevant laws and regulations of the Party receiving the information. Each Party shall communicate to the other Party information on its applicable laws and regulations.

5. Personal data may be transferred only in accordance with the data protection rules of the Party providing the data. Each Party shall inform the other Party about the relevant data protection rules and, if needed, make best efforts to agree on additional protections.

ARTICLE 13

Experts and witnesses

The requested authority may authorise its officials to appear, within the limitations of the authorisation granted, as experts or witnesses in judicial or administrative proceedings regarding the matters covered by this Annex, and produce such objects, documents or certified copies thereof as may be needed for the proceedings. The request for appearance must indicate specifically before which judicial or administrative authority the official will have to appear, on what matters and by virtue of what title or qualification the official will be questioned.

ARTICLE 14

Assistance expenses

1. The Parties shall waive any claims for reimbursement of expenses incurred in the execution of this Annex, except for allowances paid to experts, witnesses, interpreters or translators, where applicable.

2. The payment of allowances shall not apply to public-service employees.

3. If expenses of an extraordinary nature are required to execute the request, the Parties shall determine the terms and conditions under which the request will be executed, as well as the manner in which such costs shall be borne.

ARTICLE 15

Implementation

1. The implementation of this Annex shall be entrusted, on the one hand, to the customs authorities of Signatory MERCOSUR States and, on the other hand, to the competent services of the European Commission and the customs authorities of the Member States of the European Union, as appropriate. They shall decide on all practical measures and arrangements necessary for the implementation of this Annex, taking into consideration their respective applicable laws and regulations, in particular those concerning the protection of personal data.

2. Each Party shall inform the other of the detailed implementation measures that it adopts in accordance with the provisions of this Annex, in particular with respect to the duly authorised services and officials designated as competent to send and receive the communications referred to in this Annex.

3. In the European Union, this Annex shall not affect the communication of any information obtained under this Annex between the competent services of the European Commission and the customs authorities of the European Union Member States.

ARTICLE 16

Other agreements

This Annex shall take precedence over any bilateral agreement on mutual administrative assistance in customs matters which has been or may be concluded between individual Member States of the European Union and MERCOSUR or Signatory MERCOSUR States, insofar as the provisions of the latter are incompatible with those of this Annex.

ARTICLE 17

Consultations

The Parties shall consult each other in the framework of the Subcommittee on customs, trade-facilitation and rules of origin, referred to in Article 4.21 of this Agreement, with a view to resolving any matter that might arise with respect to the application or implementation of this Annex.

SUB-SECTION 2

INITIAL PROVISIONS

1. The Parties hereby recognise the right of each Party to determine its desired level of health, safety, environmental and consumer protection.

2. This Annex applies to the trade between the Parties of all categories of self-propelled road vehicles, including cars, buses, motorcycles, vans and trucks, together with their equipment and parts, falling under Chapters 40, 84, 85, 87, 90 and 94, inter alia, of HS 2017 (hereinafter referred to as 'products covered by this Annex').

4. Signatory MERCOSUR States recognise UN Regulations as a useful reference for the preparation and adoption of their regulations and conformity assessment procedures on products covered by this Annex. Signatory MERCOSUR States preserve their right to regulate using other references than the UN Regulations.

SECTION B

MARKET ACCESS PROVISIONS

1. For the requirements in the laws and regulations of a Party that is not a Contracting Party to the 1958 Agreement which make reference to or fully incorporate UN Regulations as listed in Appendix 5-B-1, that Party shall accept, in accordance with those requirements, the test reports issued by the other Party under the UN type-approval system, in order to prove compliance with its corresponding technical requirements. In those cases, the Party accepting the test reports shall ensure that the procedures for issuing domestic certificates on the basis of the acceptance of these reports are carried out in an expeditious manner. If the laboratory is accredited for the relevant scope by an accreditation body member of ILAC, the presence during these tests of an officer authorised by the authority of the Party accepting the test reports shall not be required. The applicable public fees should be proportional to the service rendered.

2. If, according to its laws and regulations, a Party that is not a Contracting Party to the 1958 Agreement accepts, as proof of compliance with its requirements, certificates issued by the other Party under the UN type-approval system or, in the case of whole vehicle type-approval, also certificates issued under the European Union type-approval system, for issuing the corresponding domestic certificates, the list of these requirements, as established by the Party accepting the certificates according to its own previous technical analysis and criteria, is set in Appendix 5-B-2.

5. If one Party amends its technical regulations or conformity assessment procedures listed in Appendices 5-B-1 and 5-B-2, it shall previously notify the other Party. The acceptance of a test result or a certificate shall remain valid until the amended regulation or procedures enter into effect.

6. 7. Each Party shall refrain from nullifying or impairing the benefits accruing to the other Party under this Annex through the adoption or maintenance of regulatory measures specific to products covered by this Annex. SECTION B

CONDITIONS FOR APPLICATION OF BILATERAL SAFEGUARD MEASURES FOR VEHICLES CLASSIFIED UNDER HS HEADINGS 8703 AND 8704

ARTICLE 2

Application of bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles

1. With a view to preserving existing levels of foreign investment in the automotive sector and without prejudice to the rights and obligations referred to in Chapter 8 of this Agreement, the Parties may, in exceptional circumstances, apply bilateral safeguard measures under the conditions established in this Section if, after the date of entry into force of this Agreement, imports of vehicles classified under HS headings 8703 and 8704 under preferential terms have increased in such quantities, absolute or relative to domestic production or consumption, and under such conditions as to cause injury to the domestic industry of the like or directly competitive vehicles of the importing Party.

2. Bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles shall be applied only to the extent necessary to prevent or remedy the injury.

3. Bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles shall be applied following an investigation by the competent investigating authorities of the importing Party under the procedures established in this Annex.

4. The application of bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles shall not entail any means of trade compensation.

ARTICLE 3

Timeframe for the application of bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles

A Party shall not apply, extend or maintain in force a bilateral safeguard measure for vehicles beyond the expiration of the transition period.

ARTICLE 4

Conditions and limitations

1. MERCOSUR may apply bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles to imports from the European Union:

(a) as a sole entity, provided that all requirements to determine the existence of injury being caused by the imports of a vehicle under preferential terms have been fulfilled, on the basis of conditions applied to MERCOSUR; or

(b) on behalf of one or more of the Signatory MERCOSUR States, in which case the requirements for the determination of the existence of injury being caused by the imports of a vehicle under preferential terms shall be based on the conditions prevailing in the relevant Signatory MERCOSUR State or Signatory MERCOSUR States; and the measure shall be limited to that Signatory MERCOSUR State or those Signatory MERCOSUR States. The adoption of a bilateral safeguard measure for vehicles by MERCOSUR on behalf of one or more Signatory MERCOSUR States shall not prevent another Signatory MERCOSUR State from adopting a measure regarding the same vehicle afterwards.

2. The European Union may apply bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles to imports from MERCOSUR as a sole entity or from one or more Signatory MERCOSUR States if the injury is being caused by imports of vehicle under preferential terms.

3. Where the European Union determines that a measure is to apply to MERCOSUR as a sole entity, Paraguay shall be exempted from the application of the measure, unless the result of an investigation demonstrates that the existence of injury is also being caused by imports of vehicles from Paraguay under preferential terms.

SECTION C

FORM AND DURATION OF BILATERAL SAFEGUARD MEASURES FOR VEHICLES CLASSIFIED UNDER HS HEADINGS 8703 AND 8704

ARTICLE 5

Form of bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles

1. Bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles adopted pursuant to this Annex shall consist of:

(a) a temporary suspension of the Tariff Elimination Schedule for the vehicle concerned provided for in Annex 2-A; or

(b) a temporary reduction of the tariff preference for the vehicle concerned so that the rate of customs duty does not exceed the lesser of:

(i) the most-favoured-nation applied rate of customs duty on the vehicle in effect at the time the measure is taken; and

(ii) the base rate of customs duty on the vehicle referred to in Annex 2-A.

2. Where a bilateral safeguard measure for vehicles as referred to in paragraph 1(b) of this Article is adopted, a Party should ensure that historical trade flows that do not cause injury to the domestic industry of the importing Party are preserved. The Party that applies a bilateral safeguard measure for vehicles shall establish an import quota for the product concerned within which such product continues to benefit from the agreed preference established under this Agreement. The import quota shall not be less than the average imports of the product concerned during the thirty-six (36) month-period previous to the last twelve (12) months of the period of data collection for the investigation to determine injury.

ARTICLE 6

Margin of preference

Upon termination of the bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles, the margin of preference shall be that which would be applied to the vehicle in the absence of the measure under Annex 2-A.

ARTICLE 7

Duration of bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles

Bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles shall be applied only for the period necessary to prevent or remedy the injury and to facilitate adjustment of the domestic industry. That period, including the period of application of any provisional measure, shall not exceed 3 (three) years.

ARTICLE 8

Extension of bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles

1. Bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles may be extended once for a maximum period of two years, if it has been determined, in accordance with the procedures set out in this Annex, that injury would be likely to continue or recur if the measure were removed or modified. The extended measure shall not be more restrictive than it was at the end of the initial period.

2. No bilateral safeguard measure for vehicles shall be applied again to the import of a vehicle which has been subject to such a measure, unless a period of time equal to half of the total duration of the previous bilateral safeguard for vehicles has elapsed.

SECTION D

INVESTIGATION AND TRANSPARENCY PROCEDURES

ARTICLE 9

Investigation

1. In conducting the investigation to determine whether increased imports have caused injury to a domestic vehicle industry as referred to in Article 2 of this Annex, the competent investigating authority shall evaluate all relevant factors of an objective and quantifiable nature having a bearing on the situation of that industry, in particular the rate and amount of the increase in imports of the vehicle concerned in absolute and relative terms; the share of the domestic market taken by increased imports; and changes in the number of workers employed, installed capacity and capacity utilisation in the vehicle industry, sales, including prices, production, productivity, profits and losses. This list is not exhaustive, nor can one or several of these factors necessarily give decisive guidance.

2. The competent investigating authority shall demonstrate, on the basis of objective evidence, the existence of a causal link between increased imports of the vehicle concerned and injury. The competent investigating authority shall also evaluate all known factors other than increased imports under preferential terms of this Agreement that might be at the same time causing injury to the domestic industry. The effects of an increase in imports of the vehicles concerned from other countries shall not be attributed to the imports under preferential terms.

3. In conducting an injury investigation as referred to in paragraph 1, a competent investigating authority should collect data over a period of at least 36 (thirty-six) months ending as close to the date of the presentation of a request to initiate an investigation as is practicable.

ARTICLE 10

Initiation of an investigation

1. If there is sufficient prima facie evidence to justify such initiation, an investigation may be initiated upon request of:

(a) the domestic vehicle industry or a trade and business association acting on behalf of the domestic vehicle industry of the like or directly competitive vehicles in the importing Party; or

(b) one or more importing Member States of the European Union or Signatory MERCOSUR States.

2. The request to initiate an investigation shall contain at least the following information:

(a) the name and description of the imported vehicle concerned, its tariff heading and the tariff treatment in force, as well as the name and description of the like or directly competitive vehicle;

(b) the names and addresses of the producers or association that submit the request, if applicable;

(c) if reasonably available, a list of all known producers of the like or directly competitive vehicle; and

(d) evidence that the conditions for imposing the bilateral safeguard measure for vehicles set out in Article 2(1) of this Annex are met.

3. For the purposes of point (d) of paragraph 2, the request to initiate an investigation shall contain the following information:

(a) the production volume of producers submitting or represented in the application and an estimation of the production of other known producers of the like or directly competitive vehicles;

(b) the rate and amount of the increase in total and bilateral imports of the vehicle concerned in absolute and relative terms, for at least over the 36 (thirty-six) months prior to the date of the presentation of a request to initiate an investigation, for which information is available;

(c) the level of import prices during the same period; and

(d) if information is available, objective and quantifiable data regarding the like or directly competitive vehicle, on the volume of total production and of total sales in the internal market, inventories, prices for the internal market, productivity, capacity utilisation, employment, profits and losses, productive investment data, and market share of the requesting firms or of those represented in the request, for at least the last 36 (thirty-six) months previous to the presentation of the request, for which information is available.

ARTICLE 14

Provisional bilateral safeguard measures for vehicles

1. In critical circumstances where delay may cause damage which would be difficult to repair, a Party, after due notification, may take a provisional bilateral safeguard measure for vehicles pursuant to a preliminary determination that there is clear evidence that imports under preferential terms have increased and that such imports have caused injury. The duration of the provisional measure shall not exceed 270 (two hundred and seventy) days, during which period the requirements of this Annex shall be met. If the final determination concludes that there was no injury to the domestic industry caused by imports under preferential terms, the increased tariff or provisional guarantee, if collected or imposed under provisional measures, shall be promptly refunded, in accordance with the domestic regulation of the relevant Party.

2. Provisional bilateral safeguard measure for vehicles shall not be taken against Paraguay, unless the result of the preliminary determination pursuant to paragraph 1 demonstrates that the existence of injury is also being caused by imports of vehicles from Paraguay under preferential terms.

The list of commitments below indicates the service sectors liberalised pursuant to Articles 10.3 and 10.4 and specifies, by means of reservations, the market access and national treatment limitations that apply to services and service suppliers of Signatory MERCOSUR States in those sectors. The list below is composed of two columns containing the following elements, respectively:

   (a) the sector or subsector in which the commitment is undertaken by the European Union, and the scope of liberalisation to which the reservations apply; and

   (b) a description of the applicable reservations.

2. The European Union does not undertake any commitment for cross-border supply of services in sectors or subsectors covered by this Agreement and not mentioned in this Annex.

3. For the purposes of this Annex, when identifying individual sectors and subsectors:

ANNEX 10-B

EUROPEAN UNION

LIST OF COMMITMENTS ON ESTABLISHMENT IN CONFORMITY WITH ARTICLES 10.3 AND 10.4

1. The list of commitments in this Annex indicates the economic activities liberalised pursuant to Articles 10.3 and 10.4 and specifies the market access and national treatment limitations that apply to enterprises and investors of MERCOSUR in those activities by means of reservations. The list in this Annex is composed of two columns containing the following elements, respectively:

   (a) the sector or subsector in which the commitment is undertaken by the European Union, and the scope of liberalisation to which the reservations apply; and

   (b) a description of the applicable reservations.

2. Establishment in sectors or subsectors covered by this Agreement and not mentioned in the list in this Annex is not committed.

3. For the purposes of this Annex, when identifying individual sectors and subsectors:

   (a) 'CPC' means the Provisional Central Products Classification as defined in Article 1.3(c);

   (b) 'CPC ver. 1.0' means the Central Products Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 77, CPC ver 1.0, 1998; and

   (c) 'ISIC rev 3.1' means the International Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, N° 4, ISIC REV 3.1, 2002.

4. The list in this Annex does not include measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards and licensing requirements and procedures if they do not constitute a market access or a national treatment limitation within the meaning of Article 10.3 or Article 10.4 respectively. Those measures (for example, need to obtain a licence, universal service obligations, need to obtain recognition of qualifications in regulated sectors, need to pass specific examinations, including language examinations, and non-discriminatory requirement that certain activities may not be carried out in environmental protected zones or areas of particular historic and artistic interest), even if not listed, apply in any case to enterprises and investors of a Signatory MERCOSUR State.

5. The European Union takes commitments with respect to market access commitments as set out in Article 10.3(1), differentiated by its Member States, if applicable.

6. For greater certainty, for the European Union, the obligation to grant national treatment does not entail the requirement to extend to natural or juridical persons of a Signatory MERCOSUR State the treatment granted in a Member State of the European Union, pursuant to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, or to any measure adopted pursuant to that Treaty, including the implementation of that Treaty or measures in the Member States of the European Union, to:

   (a) natural persons or residents of a Member State of the European Union; or

   (b) juridical persons constituted or organised under the law of another Member State of the European Union or that of the European Union and having their registered office, central administration or principal place of business in a Member State of the European Union.

   Such national treatment is granted to juridical persons which are constituted or organised under the law of a Member State of the European Union or that of the European Union and have their registered office, central administration or principal place of business in a Member State of the European Union, including those which are owned or controlled by natural or juridical persons of a Signatory MERCOSUR State.

ANNEX 10-C

EUROPEAN UNION

LIST OF LIMITATIONS IN CONFORMITY WITH ARTICLES 10.3, 10.4, 10.8 AND 10.9 (KEY PERSONNEL, GRADUATE TRAINEES AND BUSINESS SELLERS)

1. The list of limitations in this Annex indicates the economic activities liberalised pursuant to Articles 10.3 and 10.4 and specifies, by means of reservations, the limitations that apply to key personnel, graduate trainees and business sellers in accordance with Articles 10.8 and 10.9. The list in this Annex is composed of two columns containing the following elements, respectively:

   (a) the sector or sub-sector in which limitations apply; and

   (b) a description of the applicable limitations.

   The European Union does not undertake any commitment for key personnel and graduate trainees in economic activities for which it does not take commitments on establishment in accordance with Annex 10-B neither does it undertake any commitments for business sellers in economic activities for which it does not take any commitments on cross-border supply of services in accordance with Annexes 10-A and 10-B.

2. For the purposes of this Annex, when identifying individual sectors and sub-sectors:

   (a) 'CPC' means the Central Products Classification as defined in Article 1.3(c);

   (b) 'CPC ver. 1.0' means the Central Products Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, Nº 77, CPC ver. 1.0, 1998; and

   (c) 'ISIC rev 3.1' means the International Standard Industrial Classification of all Economic Activities as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, Nº 4, ISIC REV 3.1, 2002.

3. Commitments on key personnel and graduate trainees do not apply if the intent or effect of their temporary stay is to interfere with, or otherwise affect the outcome of, any labour or management dispute or negotiation.

4. The list in this Annex does not include measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards and licensing requirements and procedures if they do not constitute a limitation within the meaning of Articles 10.3 and 10.4. Those measures (for example, need to obtain a licence, need to obtain recognition of qualifications in regulated sectors, need to pass specific examinations, including language examinations, and need to have a postal address in the territory where the economic activity is performed), even if not listed below, apply in any case to key personnel and graduate trainees of a Signatory MERCOSUR State.

5. To the extent that commitments are not taken in Chapter 10, all other requirements of the laws and regulations of each Party regarding entry and temporary stay continue to apply, including those concerning the period of stay.

6. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Chapter, all requirements of each Party's laws and regulations regarding employment and social security measures shall continue to apply, including regulations concerning minimum wages and collective wage agreements.

7. The list in this Annex is without prejudice to the existence of public monopolies and exclusive rights, as set out by the European Union in Annex 10-B.

8. In the sectors where economic needs tests are applied, their main criteria shall be the assessment of the relevant market situation in the Member State of the European Union or the region where the service is to be provided, including with respect to the number of, and the impact on, existing services suppliers.

9. The European Union takes commitments with respect to market access as set out in Article 10.3(1), differentiated by its Member States, if applicable.

10. For greater certainty, for the European Union, the obligation to grant national treatment does not entail the requirement to extend to natural or juridical persons of a Signatory MERCOSUR State the treatment granted in a Member State of the European Union, pursuant to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, or to any measure adopted pursuant to that Treaty, including the implementation of that Treaty or such measures in the Member States of the European Union, to:

ANNEX 10-D

EUROPEAN UNION

LIST OF COMMITMENTS REGARDING CONTRACTUAL SERVICE SUPPLIERS AND INDEPENDENT PROFESSIONALS IN CONFORMITY WITH ARTICLES 10.3 AND 10.4

1. The list of commitments in this Annex indicates the economic activities liberalised pursuant to Articles 10.3 and 10.4 for the categories of contractual service suppliers and independent professionals, and specifies the limitations that apply by means of reservations. The list in this annex is composed of two columns as follows:

   (a) the first column indicates the sector or sub-sector for which the category of contractual service suppliers and independent professionals is liberalised; and

   (b) the second column describes the applicable reservations.

   The European Union does not undertake any commitment for contractual service suppliers in economic activities which are not listed in the first column of the list.

2. For the purposes of this Annex, when identifying individual sectors and sub-sectors:

   (a) 'CPC' means the Central Products Classification as defined in Article 1.3(c); and

   (b) 'CPC ver. 1.0' means the Central Products Classification as set out in Statistical Office of the United Nations, Statistical Papers, Series M, Nº 77, CPC ver 1.0, 1998.

3. Commitments for contractual service suppliers and independent professionals do not apply in cases where the intent or effect of their temporary stay interferes with, or otherwise affects the outcome of, any labour or management dispute or negotiation.

4. The list of commitments in this Annex does not include measures relating to qualification requirements and procedures, technical standards and licensing requirements and procedures if they do not constitute a limitation within the meaning of Articles 10.3 and 10.4. Those measures (for example, need to obtain a licence, need to obtain recognition of qualifications in regulated sectors, need to pass specific examinations, including language examinations and need to have a postal address in the territory where the economic activity is performed), even if not listed in this Annex, apply in any case to contractual service suppliers and independent professionals of a Signatory MERCOSUR State.

5. To the extent that commitments are not made by the European Union, all requirements of the laws of each Party regarding entry and temporary stay continue to apply, including those concerning the period of stay.

6. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Chapter, all requirements of the laws and regulations of each Party regarding employment and social security measures shall continue to apply, including regulations concerning minimum wages and collective wage agreements.

7. The list of commitments in this Annex is without prejudice to the existence of public monopolies or exclusive rights in the relevant sectors, as described in Annex 10-B.

8. In the sectors where economic needs tests are applied, their main criteria shall be the assessment of the relevant market situation in the Member State of the European Union or the region thereof where the service is to be provided, including with respect to the number of, and the impact on, existing services suppliers.

9. The rights and obligations arising from the list of commitments in this Annex shall have no self-executing effect and thus confer no rights directly on natural or juridical persons.

10. The entry and temporary stay of contractual service suppliers is subject to the following conditions:

(a) the juridical person employing the natural person is neither an agency for the placement and supply services of personnel nor acts through such an agency;

(b) the natural persons entering the European Union offer such services as employees of the juridical person supplying the services for at least 1 (one) year immediately prior to the date of submission of an application for entry and, in addition, possess, at the date of submission of an application for entry into the European Union, at least 3 (three) years of professional experience [1] in the sector of activity which is the subject of the contract;

(c) the natural persons entering the European Union possess:

— engineering and integrated engineering services;

— computer and related services;

— management consulting services;

— services related to management consulting; and

12. For greater certainty, for the European Union, the obligation to grant national treatment does not entail the requirement to extend to natural or juridical persons of a Signatory MERCOSUR State the treatment granted in a Member State of the European Union, pursuant to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, or to any measure adopted pursuant to that Treaty, including the implementation of that Treaty or such measures in the Member States of the European Union, to:

(a) natural persons or residents of a Member State of the European Union; or

13. The European Union takes commitments as set out in Articles 10.3, 10.4 and 10.10, differentiated by Member State of the European Union, if applicable.

C. TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES

(i) 'Telecommunications services' means, for the purposes of the commitments by Brazil on telecommunications services, the transport of electronic magnetic signals, sound, data, image and any combination thereof, excluding broadcasting.

(ii) The Federal Constitution of Brazil guarantees all acquired rights of service providers already established in Brazil. The Government of Brazil has the legal prerogative to consider limits to foreign participation in the capital of telecommunication service providers.

(iii) All service suppliers need to obtain a licence from Anatel in order to supply a telecommunication service in Brazil. Licences shall be granted only to suppliers duly constituted in accordance with Brazilian law, which requires head office and management to be located in the territory of Brazil, and ownership of the majority of the voting shares by natural persons resident in Brazil or companies duly constituted in accordance with Brazilian law, which requires head office and management: to be located in the territory of Brazil.

(iv) No commitment is made for the telecommunications services sector with respect to the activities which have their content transported by a telecommunication service. Those activities are subject to the commitments and reservations for their respective sectors.

(v) Foreign satellites shall be permitted to have market access in Brazil and regulatory decisions on the grant of such access shall be based on a transparent, objective process and taken on a reciprocal basis. Telecommunication service providers shall use Brazilian satellites if they offer technical, operational or commercial conditions equivalent to foreign satellites.

(vi) No limits shall be applied to the quantity of licences that can be granted for the supply of telecommunications services, except in cases of technical impossibility, such as issues regarding spectrum availability, or to avoid impairment to the supply of specific public interest services.

(vii) Value-added-services are not defined as telecommunications services by Brazilian law.

(viii) Suppliers of telecommunications services of collective interest constituted in Brazil in accordance with Brazilian law shall have the right to use the physical facilities (posts, ducts, conducts, servitudes) owned or controlled by other suppliers of telecommunications services or other services of public interest in a non-discriminatory manner and subject to fair and reasonable prices and conditions. The regulatory authority responsible for the facilities to be used shall define the conditions for the adequate fulfilment of this provision.

(ix) Authorisations for the supply of telecommunications services of restricted interest can be granted to juridical persons constituted in accordance with Brazilian law and which have their head office and administration in Brazil and to other entities or natural persons that are established or resident in Brazil.

7. FINANCIAL SERVICES

ARGENTINA

The following applies to all subsectors.

For the purposes of interpretation, the cross-border supply of services through electronic means, including the Internet, will be limited to Mode 1.

In the case of activities requiring the involvement of professionals, the practice of which requires registration or affiliation in professional councils or colleges, such professionals are required to enrol in the jurisdiction where the service is to be provided.

Foreign direct investments in Argentina must comply with the Central Bank of Argentina ('BCRA') regulations on disclosure of information.

Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent Argentina from applying domestic laws related to banking secrecy and confidentiality.

The outsourcing of financial services requires prior authorisation from the competent authorities and will be subject to the limitations laid down in existing laws and regulations for the entities controlled by the Central Bank of Argentina.

Modes of supply:	1) Cross-border supply	2) Consumption abroad	3) Commercial presence	4) Presence of natural persons

BRAZIL Brazil reserves the right to adopt or maintain any prudential measure. Financial service suppliers shall be organised as a 'sociedade anônima' (publicly-held company), unless otherwise specified. Financial service suppliers of banking services shall be authorised by Presidential decree in order to be incorporated under Brazilian law. Business sellers, contractual service suppliers and independent professionals are not allowed to supply financial services in Brazil. There are limits provided by law to the acquisition of foreign financial services by Brazilian financial institutions. Financial services supplied by an offshore financial service supplier [1] are not subject to the specific commitments for financial services.
URUGUAY	3) Suppliers of financial services wishing to set up operations in Uruguay require prior authorisation from the competent authorities. Applications may be rejected on precautionary grounds, including the current state of the market. The outsourcing of financial services requires prior authorisation from the competent authorities and is subject to the limitations laid down in the existing laws and regulations for the entities controlled by the Central Bank of Uruguay.		Financial Intermediation (Banking) Senior Management and Boards of Directors: branches or subsidiaries of foreign financial service suppliers may not in their by-laws prohibit Uruguayan nationals from participating in the board of directors, in management, or any other position in the institution. Financial Intermediation (Banking): the maximum amount of bank deposits covered by deposit insurance may differ depending on whether the deposits are denominated in Uruguayan pesos or another currency. The Uruguayan Government and state enterprises may deposit funds only in the Banco de la República Oriental de Uruguay. Insurance: Banco de Seguros del Estado is the sole entity permitted to provide worker's compensation insurance, and as a result it may derive a competitive advantage with respect to its overall operations.

[1] 'Offshore financial service supplier' means any financial service supplier, set up in accordance with the laws of a Member State of the Union or of a Signatory MERCOSUR State, which is owned or controlled by juridical persons which are non-residents of Brazil and whose activities are mostly related to such non-residents, and are generally on a scale out of proportion to the size of the economy of the host Member State. These institutions, could otherwise benefit from this Agreement in a way they would not if their services were supplied from the European Union: country of origin of the owner or controller. http://www.imf.org/external/pubs/ft/eds/Eng/Guide/file6.pdf.

BRAZIL

7.B. Banking and Other Financial Services (Excluding Insurance)

Horizontal Subsector Provisions:

For commitments under Mode 3): The establishment of financial institutions, including all types of bank, consumer, real estate or mortgage finance company, credit cooperative or company, leasing company, broker and dealer, as well as increases in the participation of foreign persons (natural or juridical persons) in the capital of financial institutions incorporated under Brazilian law, requires a specific authorisation granted on a case-by-case basis by the Executive Branch, by means of a Presidential decree. The grant of such authorisation may be subject to specific conditions. Institutions authorised to perform financial activities may only perform activities, for which they are authorised, in accordance with Brazilian laws and regulations. Representative offices may not engage in commercial business.

Note for transparency purposes regarding domestic regulation: services included in subsector 7.B.1 are those currently under primary responsibility of the Central Bank of Brazil (BACEN – 'Banco Central do Brasil'), and those included in subsector 7.B.2 are those under primary responsibility of the Brazilian Securities Commission (CVM – 'Comissão de Valores Mobiliários'). Only institutions accredited by those agencies may render activities listed in this subsector.

Securities, for commitments under subsector 7.B.2, are: corporate shares, debentures, secured bonds, founder's shares (extinguished in 2001, with existing shares being grandfathered), coupons of these securities; subscription warrants and rights or receipts; securities certificates of deposit; any type of derivatives, including options, forwards, swaps and futures contracts; commercial paper issued by public companies, with the exception of financial institutions; open or closed-ended mutual funds, including real estate-funds (shares of real estate investment funds); and any type of collective investment instrument offered to the public that creates the right of participation in profits or other type of capital remuneration.

All members of senior level management of financial service suppliers must be permanent residents in Brazil. Domicile in Brazil is needed, but this concept is non-discriminatory, as it is currently extendable to non-resident foreigners. In practice, only an address in Brazil is needed to register, with a working address being accepted for these purposes.

Note for subsector 7.B.:

(1) Note for transparency purposes regarding domestic regulation: the activities listed in this sector are regulated by specific rules enacted by the Brazilian Securities Commission – CVM. Current regulations are available at CVM's website (www.cvm.gov.br). The commitments are specific to the listed activities.

MARITIME TRANSPORT

ARGENTINA

NOTE TO THE ARGENTINE COMMITMENTS

Where road, rail, inland waterways and auxiliary services are not otherwise fully covered by the commitments listed above, a multimodal transport operator shall have the ability to rent or lease trucks, railway carriages or barges, and related equipment to local enterprises for the purpose of inland forwarding of cargoes, or have access to, and use of, these forms of multimodal activities on reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions for the purpose of carrying out multimodal transport operations. 'Reasonable and non-discriminatory terms and conditions' means, for the purpose of multimodal transport operations, the ability of the multimodal transport operator to arrange for the conveyance of its merchandise on a timely basis, including priority over other merchandise which has entered the port at a later date.

DEFINITIONS

1. Without prejudice to the scope of activities which may be considered as 'cabotage' under the relevant national laws and regulations, commitments listed above do not include 'maritime cabotage services', which are assumed to cover transportation of passengers or goods, including goods bound for foreign destinations, between a port located in Argentina and another port located in Argentina and traffic originating and terminating in the same port located in Argentina provided that this traffic remains within Argentina's territorial waters.

2. 'Other forms of commercial presence for the supply of international maritime transport services' means the ability for international maritime transport service suppliers of the other Party to undertake locally all activities which are necessary for the supply to their customers of a partially or fully integrated transport service, within which the maritime transport constitutes a substantial element. This commitment shall however not be construed as limiting in any manner the commitments undertaken under the cross-border mode of delivery.

   These activities include, but are not limited to:

   (a) the marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services through direct contact with customers, from quotation to invoicing, these services being those operated or offered by the service supplier itself or by service suppliers with which the service seller has established standing business arrangements;

   (b) the acquisition, on their own account or on behalf or their customers (and the resale to their customers) of any transport and related services, including inward transport services by any mode, particularly inland waterways, road and rail, necessary for the supply of the integrated services;

   (c) the preparation of documentation concerning transport documents, customs documents or other documents related to the origin and character of the goods transported;

   (d) the provision of business information by any means, including computerised information systems and electronic data interchange (subject to the provisions of the Annex on Telecommunications to GATS);

Modes of supply:	1) Cross-border supply	2) Consumption abroad	3) Commercial presence	4) Presence of natural persons

II. SPECIFIC COMMITMENTS FOR SERVICES

Sector or subsector	Limitations on market access	Limitations on national treatment	Additional commitments

(e) the setting-up of any business arrangements (including participation in the stock of a company) and the appointment of personnel recruited locally (or, in the case of foreign personnel, subject to the horizontal commitment on movement of personnel) with any locally established shipping agency; and

(f) acting on behalf of the enterprise organising the call of the vessels or taking over cargoes when required.

3. 'Multimodal transport operators' means the person on whose behalf the bill of lading or multimodal transport document, or any other document evidencing a contract of multimodal carriage of goods, is issued and who is responsible for the carriage of goods pursuant to the contract of carriage.

4. 'Maritime cargo handling services' means activities exercised by stevedore companies, including terminal operators, but not including the direct activities of dockers, when this workforce is organised independently of the stevedoring or terminal operator enterprise. The activities covered include the organisation and supervision of:

— the loading/discharging of cargo to/from a ship;

— the lashing/unlashing of cargo;

— the reception/delivery and safekeeping of cargoes before shipment or after discharge.

5. 'Customs clearance services' (alternatively 'customs house brokers' services') means activities consisting in carrying out on behalf of another party customs formalities concerning import, export or through transport of cargoes, whether this service is the main activity of the service provider or a usual complement of its main activity.

6. 'Container station and depot services' means activities consisting in storing containers, whether in port areas or inland, with a view to their stuffing/stripping, repairing and making them available for shipments.

7. 'Maritime agency services' means activities consisting in representing, within a given geographic area, as an agent the business interests of one or more shipping lines or shipping companies, for the following purposes:

— marketing and sales of maritime transport and related services, from quotation to invoicing, and issuance of bills of lading on behalf of the companies, acquisition and resale of the necessary related services, preparation of documentation, and provision of business information; and

— acting on behalf of the enterprise organising the call of the vessels or taking over cargoes when required.

GENERAL NOTES

Unless otherwise specified, the following general notes apply to Chapter 12:

1. Chapter 12 does not apply to:

   (a) procurement made outside the territory of Brazil for consumption outside the territory of that Party;

3. Brazil reserves the right to apply margins of preference to national manufactured goods and services as established in the federal Brazilian legislation. The European Union shall be informed within 30 (thirty) days after the government takes a decision regarding goods and services that may fall under this point.

6. In addition to the possibility to conduct limited tendering for pre-commercial government procurement aimed at promoting the development of innovative solutions for public sector needs set forth in point (e) of Article 12.20(1), Brazil may, whenever that provision has been invoked, use limited tendering for subsequent purchases of the same goods and services that have been developed under such arrangement from the national developer of the prototype or first good or service.

Where a state of urgency duly substantiated by the procuring entity renders this time period impracticable, the time period may be reduced to no less than 10 (ten) days.

Deadlines for the submission of tenders

2. Except as provided for in paragraphs 3, 4, 6 and 7, a procuring entity shall establish that the final date for the submission of tenders shall not be less than 40 (forty) days from the date on which:

Cases for which the time period for tendering (open and selective) can be reduced

3. A procuring entity may reduce the time period for tendering set out in paragraph 2 to not less than 10 (ten) days where:

   (a) the procuring entity published a notice of planned procurement under Article 12.13(3) at least 40 (forty) days and not more than 12 (twelve) months in advance of the publication of the notice of intended procurement, and the notice of planned procurement contains:

   (b) the procuring entity, for procurements of a recurring nature, indicates in an initial notice of intended procurement that subsequent notices will provide time periods for tendering in accordance with this paragraph; or

   (c) a state of urgency duly substantiated by the procuring entity renders the time period for tendering established in accordance with paragraph 2 impracticable.

4. A procuring entity may reduce the time period for tendering set out in paragraph 2 by 5 (five) days for each one of the following circumstances:

   (a) the notice of intended procurement is published by electronic means;

6. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Annex, where a procuring entity purchases commercial goods or services, or any combination thereof, it may reduce the time period for tendering set out in paragraph 2 to:

For the European Union:

The value of the thresholds thus revised shall, if necessary, be rounded down to the nearest thousand Euros. The converted thresholds shall apply as of 1 January of the following year and shall be fixed for 1 (one) year; and

ANNEX 18-A

PREAMBLE

THE PARTIES,

SHARING the view that this Agreement is being signed amidst an unprecedented combination of crises and challenges;

NOTING that:

(a) it is imperative to take urgent action to tackle environmental challenges and crises, including those of climate change, biodiversity loss and pollution, as clearly indicated by the most recent scientific evidence, and which are further exacerbated by persistent levels of poverty, including extreme poverty, food insecurity and inequality;

(b) the COVID-19 pandemic revealed in its wake multiple vulnerabilities in our societies, among which is concern about the resilience of supply chains, not least in national health systems;

(c) geopolitical tensions have led to an increased overlap of economic relations and resilience, bringing about disruptions in international trade flows;

(d) ensuring decent living standards becomes an even more difficult challenge as food supply chains are subject to disruptions and ecosystems are affected by the adverse effects of climate change; and

(e) successive years of cascading challenges and crises have reversed gains in the 2030 Agenda and its Sustainable Development Goals;

UNDERLINING that against this backdrop, it is critical to ensure the operation of an open, transparent and rules-based international trade;

STRESSING the imperative of urgently accelerating our actions to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals, to tackle climate change, and to obtain the means to do so;

FIRMLY BELIEVING that this Agreement brings together two regions which offer critical contributions to address the aforementioned challenges;

HIGHLIGHTING that:

(a) they share values that are called for in addressing the challenges posed by the current global context, such as:

(i) the recognition of the importance of inclusiveness in delivering solutions that work for all, especially workers, local and traditional communities, smallholding farmers, and in empowering women;

(ii) the embrace of multilateralism and the rejection of unnecessary barriers to trade;

(iii) the respect for international law; and

(iv) the protection and conservation of the environment;

(b) they play pivotal roles in the structure of global supply chains across different sectors and technological levels, including in food production;

(c) they are champions of sustainable development in its social, economic and environmental dimensions, which are integrated, indivisible, interdependent and mutually reinforcing, recognising the wide diversity of production systems, as there is not a one-size-fits-all development model;

(d) they acknowledge that eradicating poverty in all its forms and dimensions, including extreme poverty, is the greatest global challenge and an indispensable requirement for sustainable development;

(e) they recognise the importance of scaling up efforts to protect, conserve, sustainably use, and sustainably manage and restore all ecosystems, in line with their national capacities and circumstances, and that they also acknowledge the importance of increasing the mobilisation of resources to support these efforts;

(f) they also acknowledge the essential role of cooperation at multilateral level to effectively address common environmental and sustainable development challenges and commit to reinforcing cooperation on international trade and investment to avoid unnecessary disruptions and to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals, and that they further recall that the 2030 Agenda and the Sustainable Development Goals and targets, including the means of implementation, are universal, indivisible and interlinked; and

(g) regarding climate change, in particular:

(i) they reaffirm, mindful of their leadership role, their steadfast commitments, in pursuit of the objective of the UNFCCC, to tackle climate change by strengthening the full and effective implementation of the Paris Agreement and achieving its purpose and long-term goals, including its temperature goal, its goal on increasing the ability to adapt to the adverse impacts of climate change and its goal of making financial flows consistent with the previous two, reflecting equity and the principle of common but differentiated responsibilities and respective capabilities, in light of different national circumstances; that they aim to strengthen the global response to the threat of climate change, in the context of sustainable development and efforts to eradicate poverty; and that they also recognise that the impacts of climate change are being experienced worldwide, particularly by the poorest and the most vulnerable; and

(ii) they recognise the fundamental priority of safeguarding food security and ending hunger, and the particular vulnerabilities of food production systems to the adverse impacts of climate change;

AGREEING that to address the crises and challenges mentioned above, a rules-based, non-discriminatory, fair, open, inclusive, equitable, and transparent multilateral trading system, with the WTO at its core, and in accordance with the objective of sustainable development, is indispensable;

RENEWING their commitment to ensure a level playing-field and fair competition by discouraging protectionism and market-distorting practices, to foster a favourable trade and investment environment for all;

REITERATING their commitment to fully respect WTO rules and to avoid unjustified or arbitrary discrimination or a disguised restriction on international trade;

CONCURRING that the aforementioned challenges usher in a new context for the formulation of public policies to build a better future;

RECALLING Article 18.1(5) of this Agreement, and RECOGNISING the differences in their levels of development, agreeing that this Annex embodies a cooperative approach based on common values and interests;

DETERMINED to work together so that their trade relationship enhances sustainable development;

RECALLING the importance of trade for raising standards of living and promoting job growth, while allowing for the optimal use of the world's resources in accordance with the objective of sustainable development;

SEEKING both to protect and preserve the environment and to enhance the means for doing so in a manner consistent with their respective needs and concerns at different levels of economic development;

UNDERLINING the need to account for the specific challenges of landlocked developing countries to ensure market access and benefits under this Agreement;

IN LIGHT of the aforementioned challenges,

AGREE on this Annex.

PART A

TRADE AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

A.1. General provisions

1. The Parties reaffirm the commitments adopted under Chapter 18. They are of the view that they are uniquely placed to lead by example in the integration of trade and sustainable development and that this should be pursued in a collaborative manner.

2. While recognising the right of each Party to determine its sustainable development policies and priorities, which should be consistent with each Party's commitments under the international agreements it is a party to, each Party shall strive to improve its relevant laws, regulations and policies so as to ensure high and effective levels of environmental and labour protection, in accordance with Article 18.2(2). This is in line with the overall objective expressed in Article 18.1 to implement this Agreement in a manner that contributes to sustainable development. In addition, the Parties recall their agreement in Article 18.2(3) that a Party should not weaken the levels of protection afforded in its environmental or labour laws and regulations with the intention of encouraging trade or investment. The Parties recall that, under Article 18.2(5), they agree that a Party shall not fail, through a sustained or recurring course of action or inaction, to effectively enforce its environmental or labour laws and regulations in order to encourage trade or investment. In this regard, the Parties acknowledge the importance of the provision of appropriate available means to perform such enforcement. Moreover, pursuant to Article 18.2(6), a Party shall not apply its environmental and labour laws and regulations in a manner that would constitute a disguised restriction on trade or an unjustifiable or arbitrary discrimination.

3. The Parties recall that, pursuant to Principle 11 of the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development adopted by the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development in 1992 (hereinafter referred to as 'Rio Declaration on Environment and Development of 1992'), environmental standards, management objectives and priorities should reflect the environmental and developmental context to which they apply. Recalling Articles 18.1(1) and 18.1(5) of this Agreement, the Parties also recognise the differences in their levels of development and national circumstances, while pursuing the integration of sustainable development in the Parties' trade and investment relationship. They acknowledge that such differences include the challenges of landlocked developing countries.

4. The Parties acknowledge that sustainability measures affecting trade must be fully consistent with their obligations under the WTO Agreements. The Parties recall that, in accordance with the TBT Agreement, measures which amount to technical regulations restricting trade subject to that agreement should, inter alia, (i) be based on scientific and technical information; (ii) not be more trade-restrictive than necessary to fulfil a legitimate objective, taking account of the risks non-fulfilment would create; and (iii) be based on relevant international standards. The Parties also recall that sanitary and phytosanitary measures which are subject to the SPS Agreement should, in accordance with that agreement, inter alia, (i) be applied only to the extent necessary to protect human, animal or plant life or health; (ii) be based on scientific principles; (iii) be based on relevant international standards, guidelines or recommendations, except as otherwise provided for in the SPS Agreement; (iv) not be maintained without sufficient scientific evidence, except as otherwise provided for in the SPS Agreement; and (v) not be applied in a manner which would constitute a disguised restriction on international trade.

5. Pursuant to Article 22.6, the Parties highlight the key role of civil society organisations in the effective implementation of this Agreement, through the establishment of domestic advisory groups in accordance with each Party's domestic mechanisms and legislation, with a broad-based involvement of civil society actors.

6. The Parties share the understanding that promoting international trade in such a way as to contribute to the objective of sustainable development, as referred to in Article 18.1(3), entails actions under the following headings:

(a) multilateral regimes;

(b) bi-regional trade and investment relations;

(c) national and regional trade-related policies and measures; and

(d) women's economic empowerment.

Furthermore, the Parties agree that to ensure an effective implementation of their commitments under Chapter 18 of this Agreement and under this Annex, they will, on entry into force of this Agreement, engage in further discussions and put in place a series of actions and cooperation activities.

A.2. Multilateral regimes: collaborating to support multilateral rules for sustainable development

7. The Parties consider that this Agreement offers a privileged platform for consultation and cooperation on trade-related aspects of multilateral labour and environmental standards and objectives, as referred to in point (a) of Article 18.1(4), and in Articles 18.4(8), 18.5(5) and 18.6(3), in line with a cooperative approach, referred to in Article 18.1(5), that duly takes into account the Parties' different national realities, geographic constraints, capacities, needs and levels of development and which respects the Parties' national policies and priorities, referred to in point (c) of Article 18.1(4).

8. The Parties note the need to fully take into account the purpose, goals and principles enshrined in the Agenda 21 on Environment and Development, adopted at the UN Conference on Environment and Development, held in Rio de Janeiro, on 3 to 14 June 1992, and the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development of 1992, referred to in Article 18.1(2) of this Agreement. In addition, the Parties also reiterate the fundamental priority of safeguarding food security and ending hunger, and the particular vulnerabilities of food production systems to the adverse impacts of climate change, as highlighted in the Paris Agreement.

9. They recall that, pursuant to Principle 12 of the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development of 1992,

'trade policy measures for environmental purposes should not constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination or a disguised restriction on international trade. Unilateral actions to deal with environmental challenges outside the jurisdiction of the importing country should be avoided. Environmental measures addressing transboundary or global environmental problems should, as far as possible, be based on an international consensus'.

10. They further recall that, pursuant to Principle 2 of the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development of 1992, States have, in accordance with the UN Charter and the principles of international law, the sovereign right to exploit their own resources pursuant to their own environmental and developmental policies, and the responsibility to ensure that activities within their jurisdiction or control do not cause damage to the environment of other States or of areas beyond the limits of national jurisdiction.

11. In light of the foregoing, the Parties reaffirm their commitment to entrust the Subcommittee on trade and sustainable development, referred to in Article 18.14, (hereinafter referred to as 'the TSD Subcommittee') with the tasks of, inter alia, facilitating, discussing and monitoring the effective implementation of Chapter 18 and seeking to avoid trade obstacles in areas under its mandate, without prejudice to other mechanisms established under this Agreement. Consultation and cooperation in the TSD Subcommittee includes, but is not limited to, exchange of views on the implementation of the instruments and related processes listed below, as long as the Parties are parties to them:

(a) the 2030 Agenda and the Sustainable Development Goals;

(b) the UNFCCC and the Paris Agreement, established thereunder;

(c) the Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD), its Protocols, and the Kunming-Montreal Global Biodiversity Framework, adopted under the CBD in Montreal on 19 December 2022 (hereinafter referred to as 'GBF');

(d) the Montreal Protocol on Substances That Deplete the Ozone Layer done at Montreal on 16 September 1987, and its Kigali Amendment done at Kigali on 15 October 2016;

(e) the United Nations Convention to Combat Desertification done at Paris on 17 June 1994;

(f) the Basel Convention on the Control of Transboundary Movements of Hazardous Wastes and their Disposal done at Basel on 22 March 1989, the Rotterdam Convention on the prior informed consent procedure for certain hazardous chemicals and pesticides in international trade done at Rotterdam on 10 September 1998, the Stockholm Convention on persistent organic pollutants done at Stockholm on 22 May 2001, and the Minamata Convention on Mercury done at Kumamoto on 10 October 2013;

(g) the Convention on Migratory Species done at Bonn on 23 June 1979;

(h) the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES);

(i) the Ramsar Convention on Wetlands done at Ramsar on 2 February 1971;

(j) the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples adopted by the General Assembly on 13 September 2007; and

(k) the ILO Conventions and Protocols.

12. With regard to the CBD, the Parties recognise the importance of the following elements to support its effective implementation:

(a) the implementation of the three objectives of the CBD - conservation of biological diversity, the sustainable use of its components and the fair and equitable sharing of the benefits arising out of the utilisation of genetic resources – in a balanced manner;

(b) the implementation of the GBF;

(c) the implementation, revision or update, and communication of national biodiversity strategies and action plans, including national targets, in accordance with Article 6 of the CBD; and

(d) the provision of adequate means of implementation, including financial resources, access to and transfer of technology, technical and scientific cooperation, exchange of information and distribution of benefits from biotechnology, recognising the specific challenges faced by Signatory MERCOSUR States, in line with the provisions of the CBD.

13. In reiterating their full commitment to the UNFCCC and to effectively implementing the Paris Agreement, the Parties agree to undertake and enhance actions to support their objectives and goals, including by taking into account global stocktakes of the Paris Agreement, considering mitigation, adaptation and the means of implementation and support, and in light of equity and the best available science. The Parties recall and reiterate all their respective commitments under the climate multilateral regime, including, but not restricted to the following:

(a) regarding nationally determined contributions (hereinafter referred to as 'NDCs') and mitigation: to prepare, communicate and maintain successive NDCs and pursue domestic mitigation measures, with the aim of achieving the objectives of such contributions; that successive NDCs will represent a progression over time and reflect the highest possible ambition, reflecting equity and the principle of common but differentiated responsibilities and respective capabilities, in the light of different national circumstances;

(b) regarding adaptation: to engage in adaptation planning processes and the implementation of actions, including the development or enhancement of relevant plans, policies or contributions; and

(c) regarding finance flows and means of implementation: to take action aiming at making finance flows consistent with a pathway towards low greenhouse gas emissions and climate-resilient development; to provide support to developing country parties to the Paris Agreement for the implementation of climate action, including financial resources, technology transfer and capacity building, in accordance with Articles 9, 10 and 11 of the Paris Agreement, recognising that enhanced support for developing country parties to the Paris Agreement will allow for higher ambition in their actions.

14. The Parties agree to actively cooperate, both in negotiations within the regime and in its implementation, towards fostering joint climate action.

15. Each Party reaffirms its relevant international commitments and shall implement measures, in accordance with its respective internal laws and regulations, to prevent further deforestation and enhance efforts to stabilise or increase forest cover from 2030. In this context, the Parties should not weaken the levels of protection afforded in their environmental law.

16. The Parties further acknowledge that their policies must take into account the social and economic challenges of developing countries and their contribution to global food security.

17. The Parties also stress the need for enhanced support and investment to achieve these objectives, including through financial resources, technology transfer, capacity-building, and other mechanisms foreseen in this Agreement.

18. The Parties will step up efforts to increase substantially the share of renewable energy in the global energy mix and enhance cooperation to facilitate access to clean energy research and technology, including renewable energy, energy efficiency and advanced and cleaner fossil-fuel technology, and promote investment in energy infrastructure and clean energy technology.

19. The Parties also agree to use the TSD Subcommittee to cooperate and exchange information regarding the implementation of the WTO Agreement on Fisheries Subsidies, adopted at the 12th WTO Ministerial Conference on 17 June 2022, once it has entered into force.

20. While recognising the privileged space for consultation and cooperation provided by the TSD Subcommittee, the Parties stress that this Agreement does not modify in any manner the nature or scope of the commitments adopted under the relevant international agreements referred to in Chapter 18 of this Agreement as well as the mechanisms for implementation agreed under those agreements. The design and functioning of those agreements, in particular the nature of the commitments adopted therein as well as the compliance mechanisms thereof, when existing, reflect balances achieved in the framework of those agreements which are not altered nor conditioned in any way by the references to these commitments in this Agreement.

A.3. Bi-regional trade and investment relations: harnessing this Agreement's potential to spur true sustainable development that works for all

21. The Parties understand that integration of sustainable development in the Parties' trade and investment relationship, referred to in Article 18.1(1), must deliver, inter alia, tangible economic benefits for producers of goods and providers of services that incorporate sustainability in their activities, in particular the most vulnerable, including women, smallholder farmers, indigenous peoples and local communities.

22. The benefits referred to in paragraph 21 of this Annex can be achieved through, inter alia, initiatives that encourage trade of products obtained or produced sustainably and in accordance with the Parties' law, and projects that foster interregional supply chains to promote the positive contribution of trade to a pathway towards low greenhouse gas emissions and climate-resilient development and to increase the ability to adapt to the adverse effects of climate change in a manner that does not threaten food production, as referred to in point (b) of Article 18.6(2).

23. The Parties are committed to the protection of labour rights and recognise the role of the ILO as the key multilateral organisation in this field.

24. Recalling Article 18.4(4) of this Agreement, each Party shall make continued and sustained efforts towards ratifying the fundamental ILO Conventions, Protocols and other relevant ILO Conventions to which it is not yet a party and that are classified as up-to-date by the ILO, while respecting the sovereign right of a Party to enter into additional international obligations. In accordance with Article 18.4(3) of this Agreement, each Party shall respect, promote and effectively implement the internationally recognised core labour standards, as defined in the fundamental ILO Conventions.

25. In the implementation of these commitments, the Parties intend to place a specific focus on the eradication of child labour as well as on freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining. The Parties understand that the commitment to the effective implementation entails that each Party adopts relevant laws and regulations, and exercises its jurisdiction and control by establishing a system for ensuring compliance with the requirements of the internationally recognised core labour standards, as defined in the fundamental ILO Conventions.

26. Furthermore, in line with the commitment to promote decent work in Article 18.4(8) of this Agreement and the ILO Declaration on Social Justice for a Fair Globalization, the Parties underline the principle of social dialogue, which is a guiding principle of the ILO, and understand that the ratification of fundamental and other relevant ILO Conventions should be carried out in a manner consistent with this principle.

Making this Agreement work for producers of sustainable goods

27. Recognising the fundamental role that millions of inhabitants of regions distant from urban centres, such as forests, natural grasslands, wetlands and other natural ecosystems play in achieving sustainable development, the Parties will collaborate in providing increased market access opportunities for products obtained sustainably and in accordance with the law of each Party, from smallholders, cooperatives, indigenous peoples and local communities and to develop mechanisms to support these populations in obtaining and maintaining sustainable sources of income, while respecting collective land rights of indigenous peoples and local communities, in accordance with the law and relevant international commitments of each Party.

28. The Parties agree to discuss specific measures and initiatives to attain this goal within the framework of the TSD Subcommittee or other body established under this Agreement, as appropriate. Such measures and initiatives include, inter alia, the identification of market access opportunities required to spur exports of products sustainably obtained or produced, and measures and initiatives to expedite and facilitate trade between the Parties.

Promoting sustainable interregional value chains for energy transition

29. Pursuant to point (b) of Article 18.6(2), the Parties shall seek to harness the significant potential for interregional partnerships in energy transition projects, given their many complementarities regarding the inputs, expertise and technologies required to develop solutions in areas such as sustainable mobility and other areas identified by the Parties.

30. In this sense, the Parties recognise that building interregional value chains that are responsible, sustainable, transparent, unimpeded and resilient is one of the key aspects to meeting the objectives related to achieving a fair and just energy transition that contributes to the social, economic and environmental development of both regions. Through an effective and balanced participation in these chains, both regions will be in a better position to preserve their competitiveness in the global market, maintain a high level of employment with the creation of quality jobs, reinforce their productive and innovation capacity, improve the existing industrial base and support their transformation.

31. With a view to creating jobs and fostering synergies between the levels of technological development and the natural resources existing in MERCOSUR and in the European Union, the Parties will collaborate in designing initiatives that boost sustainable and resilient interregional value chains. Such value chains should favour investment and industrial development in raw material-producing countries, with a view to increasing the value added locally and promoting job creation. The Parties will prioritise, inter alia, the consideration of the joint development of sustainable interregional markets and value chains in strategic sectors consistent with each Party's relevant laws and regulations; such sectors may include:

(a) responsible mining, beneficiation and transformation of metals and minerals which are critical for the energy transition;

(b) energy sources which play a crucial role in the energy transition, including liquified natural gas and renewable energy; this is most notably relevant for renewable and low-emission electricity generation as well as for those industrial sectors where greenhouse gas emissions reduction is challenging;

(c) sustainable mobility and associated value chains, including lithium-ion batteries, battery recycling as well as recharging infrastructure, electromobility and electric automobile industrial production;

(d) sustainable biofuels, including ethanol and biodiesel, sustainable aviation fuel (SAF) and renewable fuels of non-biological origin;

(e) hydrogen and its derivatives, to significantly contribute to the Sustainable Development Goals.

32. To attain the goals set out in paragraph 31, the Parties agree on the importance of implementing policy instruments to accelerate the development of capabilities, particularly in developing countries, to enable them to effectively participate in value chains focused on strategic manufacturing industries for the energy transition, which require large investments, state-of-the-art technology and a specialised workforce, as well as specific policies designed to promote inclusion of women. In this sense, taking into account the asymmetries between both regions, and without prejudice to the rights of the European Union, Signatory MERCOSUR States may adopt promotion measures aimed at the development and growth of strategic manufacturing industries for sustainable transition, in line with the 2030 Agenda and its Sustainable Development Goals. Such measures shall be consistent with this Agreement and the WTO Agreements.

33. In addition, the Parties will collaborate regarding the aforementioned sectors including in the following aspects:

(a) facilitation and promotion of investments that foster local addition of value in production chains in raw material-producing countries;

(b) provision of technical and other support for projects that contribute to the creation of interregional value chains, development of technology and knowledge, enabling the building of capabilities in Signatory MERCOSUR States.

34. Finally, the Parties commit to collaborate in fostering interregional value chains in areas that offer an indirect contribution to the energy transition, such as the production of goods and services for healthcare, the development of the digital economy, including knowledge-based services, as well as sustainable food production.

A.4. National or regional trade-related policies and measures: acknowledging the variety of effective approaches to attain sustainable development

35. The Parties reaffirm their respective commitments adopted under this Agreement and the relevant international regimes mentioned in Chapter 18 related to the conservation, protection and sustainable management of forests and other terrestrial ecosystems, and to sustainable land use in accordance with their respective laws and regulations. They also reaffirm their commitment to encourage trade in products from sustainably managed forests harvested in accordance with the law of the country of harvest, to combat illegal logging and related trade.

36. The Parties furthermore recognise the role of traditional and indigenous knowledge as well as the role of local actors as key protagonists in sustainable land use and protecting, conserving, and sustainably using forests and biodiversity. They recall the importance of supporting indigenous peoples and local communities in sustainably managing forests and acknowledge that policies aimed at curbing deforestation must take into account the social and economic challenges and rights of local communitiesin accordance with each Party's laws and regulations and its relevant international commitments.

37. The Parties are determined to reiterate and step up the efforts to end illicit threats to nature and the environment, including illegal logging and fire and illegal wildlife trade, illegal mining and other harmful activities such as illegal, unreported and unregulated (IUU) fishing and illegal traffic of waste which threaten the environment.

38. The Parties note the importance of strengthening the conservation, restoration, sustainable use and management of all types of ecosystems and of enhancing the social, economic and environmental benefits of biodiversity for people, especially those in vulnerable situations and those most dependent on biodiversity, including through sustainable biodiversity-based activities, products and services that enhance biodiversity. The Parties will cooperate to promote sustainable consumption and production patterns, in order to progressively reduce negative impacts on biodiversity and increase positive impacts. They also express their resolve to take effective measures to ensure fair and equitable sharing of benefits arising out of the utilisation of genetic resources and from digital sequence information on genetic resources, consistent with each Party's international commitments.

39. In order to harness the potential of trade for the benefit of ecosystems, the Parties will establish within a year of the entry into force of this Agreement a list of products from Signatory MERCOSUR States which contribute to the conservation, restoration, sustainable use and management of forests and vulnerable ecosystems. Products in this list, which shall be periodically reviewed every three years, should be granted preferential or additional market access, or other incentives by the European Union to promote their trade, such as technical assistance or capacity building.

40. Additionally, the Parties should put in place actions and measures to enhance trade in goods contributing to enhanced social conditions and environmentally sound practices, such as goods and services contributing to a resource-efficient, low-carbon economy, or goods that are the subject of sustainability assurance schemes and mechanisms. Such actions, to be periodically reviewed by the Parties every three years, may include measures to enhance market access, technical assistance, capacity building and trade facilitation, as appropriate.

41. The Parties' commitment to enhanced cooperation and understanding of their respective labour and environmental trade-related policies and measures, referred to in point (c) of Article 18.1(4), implies, inter alia, acknowledging that policies, measures and solutions to tackle the challenge of sustainable development may vary across countries and regions.

A.5. Trade and women's economic empowerment

42. The Parties recognise that inclusive trade policies contribute to advancing women's economic empowerment. The Parties acknowledge the important contribution by women to economic growth through their participation in economic activity, including international trade. Accordingly, the Parties intend to implement the provisions of this Agreement in a manner that promotes equal opportunities and treatment for women and men and that incorporates this perspective in trade and investment policies.

43. Each Party shall strive to ensure that its relevant law and policies provide for, and promote, equal rights, treatment and opportunities for women and men. Each Party shall strive to improve such law and policies, without prejudice to the right of each Party to establish its own scope and levels of protection for equal opportunities for women and men. Such law and policies shall be consistent with each Party's commitments to relevant international agreements, including the Convention on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women, adopted by the UN General Assembly on 18 December 1979, which each Party shall effectively implement.

44. The Parties acknowledge that changes in trade flows may have a differential effect on the employment opportunities and participation of men and women, on their income and their well-being. Taking into account the ILO Centenary Declaration for the Future of Work, adopted in Geneva on 21 June 2019, the Parties also acknowledge the importance of an equal sharing of responsibilities among family members and of investment in the care economy in order for women to take advantage of trade-related economic opportunities and entrepreneurial activities, especially women in vulnerable situations.

45. The Parties intend to work together to strengthen their cooperation on trade-related aspects of matters covered by this section. The cooperation activities shall aim to improve the capacity and conditions for women workers, businesswomen and entrepreneurs, including women's access to participation, leadership and education in fields in which they are underrepresented, as well as to make efforts to support sectorial policies that enable the insertion of women in dynamic and higher productivity sectors, including by promoting foreign direct investment flows that expand job opportunities for women in the labour market, especially in those sectors that are male-dominated. Such cooperation may cover, inter alia, the exchange of information and best practices related to data collection that allows the identification, design, implementation and review of trade policies aimed at lifting obstacles faced by women in international trade.

PART B

COOPERATION

B.1. Contributing to the reduction of inequalities within and among countries

46. The Parties undertake to cooperate in guaranteeing that the gradual establishment of the MERCOSUR-EU free-trade area will contribute not only to increasing overall income and prosperity, but also to the reduction of inequalities, in line with Sustainable Development Goal 10. Concurrently, in the promotion of a transition to low-emission and climate resilient economies, the Parties recall their respective commitments to work towards a just transition and to provide and mobilise the necessary funds to this end.

B.2. Promoting the objectives of Chapter 18 on trade and sustainable development

47. In order to achieve the objectives of Chapter 18 of this Agreement, the Parties highlight the importance of interregional cooperation including in the following areas:

(a) the implementation of multilateral commitments in the areas of climate change, biodiversity and the environment, and of ILO labour standards;

(b) support for the role of indigenous peoples and local communities in the promotion of sustainable development;

(c) improving traceability in value chains;

(d) unlocking the potential of a sustainable and inclusive bioeconomy, including biodiversity-based products and services that enhance biodiversity;

(e) the use of transparent, comparable, measurable, inclusive, science-based and context-specific criteria and methodologies to assess the sustainability of the bioeconomy throughout value chains;

(f) sustainable biofuels, including ethanol and biodiesel, sustainable aviation fuel (SAF) and renewable fuels of non-biological origin; and

(g) production and facilitation of trade of sustainably-produced goods and services, including low-carbon goods.

48. The Parties express support for scaling up finance from developed to developing countries, as well as from other sources, for protecting, conserving, sustainably using and restoring all ecosystems, according to domestic circumstances and policies. They also acknowledge the importance, for Signatory MERCOSUR States, of the European Union's support and appropriate means to support national policies and international commitments regarding climate change mitigation, adaptation, and its co-benefits, loss and damage objectives and to address biodiversity loss, forest conservation and restoration, in accordance with the laws and regulations as well as the applicable international commitments of each Signatory MERCOSUR State. They also acknowledge the importance of providing and mobilising the technical and financial support needed to enhance the adaptive capacity and resilience of food production and reduce the vulnerability of farmers and other vulnerable groups, especially small-scale farmers, women and youth, in relation to climate change.

49. Recalling the objective of Chapter 18 to enhance the integration of sustainable development in the Parties' trade and investment relationship, the Parties commit to supporting the review of existing financing instruments, to ensure an adequate financing for forest conservation, reforestation, restoration and the reduction of deforestation, and natural grassland conversion, and to work together to ensure these instruments are appropriately financed from domestic and international sources, where applicable, according to each Party's law. Additionally, the Parties support scaling up the mobilisation of resources, including through results-based payments and other policy approaches, such as payment for ecosystem services.

50. The Parties emphasise that such cooperation should not only involve the public sector, but also businesses, academia and civil society, in line with their respective roles in promoting sustainable development.

B.3. Sustainability measures affecting trade

51. Recalling their commitments under the WTO Agreements, the Parties agree to have a cooperative approach to address challenges associated with meeting the requirements associated with a Party's sustainability measures affecting trade, taking into account the different levels of development, capacities, priorities and national circumstances and legislation, as well as the specific challenges of landlocked developing countries. Among the aforementioned challenges, the Parties recognise the need to facilitate the implementation of actions to support compliance with the sustainability measures of a Party affecting trade, so that exports can benefit fully from the market access opportunities provided for by this Agreement. They also point to the Protocol on Cooperation, annexed to the Partnership Agreement, as a tool to attain this purpose and agree that support for Signatory MERCOSUR States should include provision of financial resources, capacity building programs, technical assistance and other joint initiatives to promote sustainable supply chains.

52. The Parties recall the provisions of Chapter 5, in particular Article 5.5. The Parties shall seek to identify and adopt measures and implement initiatives to expedite and facilitate trade between them in relevant products, as appropriate, such as mutual recognition or equivalence agreements and increasing mutual knowledge and understanding of existing practices and schemes.

53. (c) in case of a divergence between the documentation, licences, information and data from certification schemes and traceability and monitoring systems officially recognised, registered or identified by Signatory MERCOSUR States, and the information being used by the relevant authorities in the European Union, the latter shall, upon request, promptly consider information and clarifications provided by Signatory MERCOSUR States; and

(d) recognising that, in the context of their due diligence obligations, European Union operators and traders may make use of traceability, certification or other third party verified schemes, the European Union shall, upon request from relevant authorities of Signatory MERCOSUR States, provide support for transparent and independent assessments of traceability, certification or third-party verification schemes and their alignment with requirements and good practices.

56. Nothing under this section shall be understood or interpreted as a derogation, modification or incorporation of new definitions regarding the protection of wooded ecosystems under a Party's law.

60. Subject to Rule 2, if a party proves that it has received a document on a date other than the date on which this document is received by the other party, any period of time that is calculated on the basis of the date of receipt of that document shall be calculated from the last date of receipt of that document.

XVIII. OTHER PROCEDURES

61. This Annex is also applicable to procedures established under Articles 21.18 to 21.21. Nonetheless, the time periods laid down in this Annex shall be adjusted in line with the special time periods provided for the adoption of a ruling by the arbitration panel in those other procedures.

4. The co-chair of the Trade Committee from the requesting party, or the co-chair's designee, shall select the mediator within 5 (five) days of the request made pursuant to Article 3(2) of this Annex.

5. Should the sub-list referred to in point (c) of Article 21.8(3) of this Agreement not be established at the time a request is made pursuant to paragraph 3 of this Article, the mediator shall be drawn by lot from the individuals who have been formally proposed by one or both parties.

6. The mediator shall, in an impartial and transparent manner, assist the parties in bringing clarity to the measure and its possible trade effects, and in reaching a mutually agreed solution.

7. Annex 21-B applies to mediators, mutatis mutandis.

8. Rules 2 to 9 and 56 to 59 of the Rules of Procedure for Arbitration set out in Annex 21-A apply, mutatis mutandis.

ARTICLE 5

Rules of the mediation procedure

1. No later than 10 (ten) days after the appointment of the mediator, the party which invoked the mediation procedure shall deliver a detailed, written description of its concerns to the mediator and to the other party, in particular of the operation of the measure at issue and its trade effects. No later than 20 (twenty) days after the receipt of that description, the other party may deliver written comments on the description. Either party may include any information that it deems relevant in its description or comments.

2. The mediator may decide on the most appropriate way of bringing clarity to the measure concerned and its possible trade effects. In particular, the mediator may organise meetings between the parties, consult them jointly or individually, and provide any additional support requested by the parties. The mediator shall seek the assistance of, or consult with, relevant experts and stakeholders upon agreement of the parties.

3. The mediator shall not advise or comment on the consistency of the measure at issue with this Agreement. The mediator may offer advice and propose a solution for the consideration of the parties. The parties may accept or reject the proposed solution, or agree on a different solution.

4. The mediation procedure shall take place in the territory of the party to which the request was addressed or, by mutual agreement of the parties, in any other location or by any other means.

5. The parties shall endeavour to reach a mutually agreed solution no later than 60 (sixty) days after the appointment of the mediator. Pending a final agreement, the parties may consider possible interim solutions, particularly if the measure relates to perishable goods or other goods or services that rapidly lose their quality.

6. The solution may be adopted by means of a decision of the Trade Committee. The conclusion of the mutually agreed solution between the parties may be subject to the completion of any necessary internal procedures. Mutually agreed solutions shall be made publicly available without containing information that a party has designated as confidential.

7. On request of the parties, the mediator shall deliver a draft factual report to the parties, providing a brief summary of the measure at issue, the procedures followed and any mutually agreed solution reached, including possible interim solutions. The mediator shall allow the parties 15 (fifteen) days to comment on the draft report. After considering the comments of the parties received within that period, the mediator shall, within 15(fifteen) days, deliver a final factual report to the parties. The factual report shall not include any interpretation of this Agreement.

8. The procedure shall be terminated:

(a) by the adoption of a mutually agreed solution by the parties, on the date of the adoption thereof;

(b) by mutual agreement of the parties at any stage of the procedure, on the date of such agreement;

(c) by a written declaration of the mediator, after consultation with the parties, that further efforts at mediation would be to no avail, on the date of that declaration; or

(d) by a written declaration of a party after exploring any possible mutually agreed solutions under the mediation procedure and after having considered any advice and proposed solutions by the mediator, on the date of that declaration.

ARTICLE 6

Implementation of a mutually agreed solution

1. If the parties reached agreement on a solution, each party shall take the measures it considers necessary to implement the mutually agreed solution within the agreed timeframe.

2. The implementing party shall notify the other party, in writing, of any steps or measures taken to implement the mutually agreed solution.

ARTICLE 7

Confidentiality

Unless the parties agree otherwise, and without prejudice to Article 5(6), all steps of the procedure, including any advice or proposed solution, are confidential. However, any party may disclose to the public the fact that mediation is taking place.

ARTICLE 8

Relationship to dispute settlement procedures

1. The mediation procedure is without prejudice to the Parties' rights and obligations under dispute settlement procedures of this Agreement, or any other agreement.

2. A party shall not rely on, or introduce as evidence in other dispute settlement procedures of this Agreement or of any other agreement, nor shall a panel take into consideration:

(a) positions taken by the other party in the course of the mediation procedure or information gathered under Article 5;

(b) the fact that the other party has indicated its willingness to accept a solution to the measure subject to mediation; or

(c) advice given or proposals made by the mediator.

3. A mediator shall not serve as a member of a panel in dispute settlement proceedings under this Agreement or under the WTO Agreement, or any other agreement to which the Parties are party, involving the same matter for which he or she has been a mediator.
