to the address below and should indicate the name, address, telephone, fax and/or telex numbers of the interested party.

(b) Collection of information and holding of hearings

All interested parties, provided that they can show that they are likely to be affected by the results of the investigation, are hereby invited to make their views known in writing and to provide supporting evidence.

Furthermore, the Commission may hear interested parties, provided that they make a request in writing and show that there are particular reasons why they should be heard.

6. Community interest

In accordance with Article 21 of the basic Regulation and in order that an informed decision may be reached as to whether repealing or maintaining the anti-dumping measures currently in force would be in the Community interest, the Community producers, importers and their representative associations, and representative users may, within the time limit specified in this notice, make themselves known and provide the Commission with information. It should be noted that any information submitted pursuant to this Article will only be taken into account if supported by factual evidence at the time of submission.

7. Time limit

Interested parties, if their representations are to be taken into account during the investigation, must make themselves known, present their views in writing and submit information within 40 days from the date of the publication of this notice. Interested parties may also apply to be heard by the Commission within the same time limit. This time limit also applies to interested parties unknown to the Commission, and it is consequently in the interest of these parties to contact the Commission without delay at the following address:

8. Non-cooperation

In cases in which any interested party refuses access to, or otherwise does not provide necessary information within the time limit, or significantly impedes the investigation, preliminary or final findings, affirmative or negative, may be made in accordance with Article 18 of the basic Regulation, on the basis of the facts available.

Non-opposition to a notified concentration

(Case No IV/M.1097 — Wacker/Air Products)

(98/C 324/05)

(Text with EEA relevance)

On 4 August 1998, the Commission decided not to oppose the above notified concentration and to declare it compatible with the common market. This decision is based on Article 6(1)(b) of Council Regulation (EEC) No 4064/89. The full text of the decision is only available in English and will be made public after it is cleared of any business secrets it may contain. It will be available:
