Notification of an agreement

(Case No IV/36.061 — ECU Banking Association)

(96/C 194/04)

(Text with EEA relevance)

1. On 4 June 1996 the Commission received an application pursuant to Article 2 of Council Regulation No 17 [1] of proposed revised Clearing Rules of the ECU Banking Association (EBA). The Clearing Rules govern among other things participation in the EBA Clearing System which offers the current 47 EBA clearing members a possibility for the netting and settlement of obligations amongst themselves resulting from the execution of ECU payment instructions.

2. On preliminary examination, the Commission finds that the notified agreement could fall within the scope of Regulation 17.

3. The Commission invites interested third parties to submit to the Commission their possible observations on the proposed revised Clearing Rules.

4. Observations must reach the Commission not later than 10 days following the date of this publication. Observations can be sent, quoting reference 'IV/36.061 — ECU Banking Association', by fax (No (32-2) 296 98 07) or by post to the following address:
