Communities, to submit their comments within the same time limit.

The Commission would draw the attention of the Italian Government to the letter it sent to all the Member States on 3 November 1983 concerning their obligations under Article 93 (3) of the EC Treaty and to the notice published in Official Journal of the European Communities No C 318, p. 3, of 24 November 1983, which stated that any aid granted illegally, i.e. without a final decision under the procedure laid down in Article 93 (2) of the EC Treaty having been reached, is likely to be the subject of a request for reimbursement and/or a refusal to charge to the EAGGF budget expenditure on national measures directly affecting Community measures.

Any refund will have to be paid according to the provisions of Italian law, including interest calculated on the basis of the interest rate used as a reference rate in the evaluation of regional aid schemes and commencing on the date on which the illegal aid was granted.'

The Commission hereby gives the other Member States and interested parties notice to submit their comments on the measures in question within one month from the date of publication of this notice to:

European Commission,
Rue de la Loi/Wetstraat, 200,
B-1049 Brussels.

The comments will be communicated to the Italian Government.
